BNP politics confined to party office

M NURUL HAYAT CHOWDHURY, Ctg

Political activities of BNP in Chattogram have remained restricted to its city office and adjoining areas for more than five years, as the government is reportedly not allowing them to hold programmes at any other venue.

"The last rally we held was at Polo Ground in 2012. We have applied to the authorities concerned numerous times for allowing us to hold gatherings in the city, but to no avail," Dr Shahadat Hossain, BNP city unit president, told The Daily Star.

"On Saturday, we sought permission from Chattogram Metropolitan Police to hold a rally at Laldighi Maidan on Thursday. We were denied once again," he said. "We have announced the gathering, demanding release of our Chairperson Khaleda Zia..."

time, said party leaders. "Since assuming office, the government has not only barred us from holding rallies at different venues, they have also filed several hundred false and fabricated cases against our party workers," said Shahadat Hossain.

According to party leaders, at least 100 cases had been lodged with each of the port city's 15 police stations against more than 4,000 BNP leaders and activists in the past few months.

"I am facing 46 cases and had to spend one and a half months in prison after being arrested on February 8, said the BNP city unit president. "Many party members could not even stay in their houses due to police raids," he alleged.

Abul Hashem Bakkar, secretary general of BNP's city unit, said, "I'm facing 25 cases and was arrested twice in the last five years. He said ward and thana unit leaders and activists are in a more miserable condition.

The next day, doctors at Mount Elizabeth Hospital found Sarcomatoid Renal Cell Carcinoma, one of the most complex forms of cancer, in his kidney.

Rafiqul underwent four surgeries, chemotherapy and radiotherapy. Though he returned home, he had to visit the hospital every three months. He went there early September, but unfortunately was diagnosed with brain cancer, said Rafiqul's wife Shahnaz Parvin yesterday.

Doctors said he may need two more rounds of chemoradiation therapy before an evaluation on October 7.

In the last two and a half years, more than Tk 2 crore has been spent. Most of it came from his friends and colleagues, said Shahnaz, lecturer of a college. After the latest surgery, the hospital has bills worth

60,000 Singapore dollars (more than Tk 50 lakh) due. For the next 15 days, bill for each day would be 5,000 Singapore dollars (more than Tk 42,000), said Shahnaz, mother of an eight-year-old. Friends of Rafigul have opened a Facebook page --
