Cider International School hosts Junior School Music Fest 2018

CIDER International School held a music fest for the students and parents of Junior School on September 26, 2018. It was a glorious and inspiring event as we got to see the diverse talents and skills of our students and of the parents who participated. The theme of the fest was traditional folk and fusion music. It brought enjoyment and encouraged all students to learn and to build interests in musical activities. Students got the opportunity to learn and to show their talents through creative performances such as dancing, singing, acting, hosting, and so many more fun activities. There were numerous groups from Play Group to Class 5, who took part in the event. The Junior School students proudly hosted the entire show as well.

This event helped increase their level of self-confidence, creativity, intellectual curiosity, self-esteem, and building camaraderie among students as they were able to learn about many ways to prove themselves in different fields and activities along with their studies in a fun environment. The show was illuminated with the presence of Principal G C Tripathi. Junior School Vice Principal, Neeti Tripathi gave her vote of thanks. The chief guest of the event was Rumman Ahmed, Owner of The Hide Out, Director of Wind of Change, Chairman of Hammer Strength, Managing Editor of CLICK, and Chairman of Habib Tazkira's. The guest of honour was Ahmed Razeed, Founder Director of Chittagong Music Society and his wife Neela Naz, both popular musicians from Chittagong. It was an amazing, successful event that inspired and motivated the young artists to explore their skills through various activities along with the academic activities the school provides.
