

FLORALS, FEMINISM and romance

I always believed I was born in the wrong century. That's because of my constant fascination with the Victorian era; the romance, wordplay, feminism, fashion and the mysticism associated. Ever when I was little, I wished to replicate the days gone by, and one perfect way was to incorporate it into everyday fashion. I am quite sure there are many others like me who are obsessed with the classics.