

Ajay's Unhappy Father-in-Law

In the showbiz industry, it is common to hear about couples' breakup days after they begin seeing each other. But, Kajol and Ajay Devgn have stood the test of time by being married for 18 years now. Even though they seem to have a perfect marriage now, it did not always start this way. Kajol revealed in Neha Dhupia's chat show, No Filter Neha that her parents were not very supportive when she got married. According to her, her father did not talk to her for a week after she told him how she wants to get married. He supposedly did not support her getting married at an early age as she was in the peak of her career. She also said that even though her parents were apprehensive, Ajay's parents were very happy with the marriage.

Source: Times of India

KEIRA KNIGHTLEY'S Misbehaviour!

Actor Keira Knightley is set to star in the Comedy-Drama Misbehaviour, which is based on the real life story of Miss World 1970. The film, which is produced by Left Blank Pictures and Pathe is being directed by Philippa Lowthorpe. The film also stars Black Mirror actor Gugu Mbatha-Raw and Wild Rose star Jessie Buckley. The film is set in London, 1970 where the Miss World Competition was taking place. Back then, the competition was widely watched, and it brought in over 100 million viewers. The Women's Liberation Movement crashed the stage during the competition, and interrupted the scheduled broadcast, as they claimed the competition demeaned women. The result of the competition then caused massive uproar as a black woman, Miss Grenada won the competition for the first time. This turned the Western concept for beauty on its head.

Source: Internet

KEANU REEVES Publishing Books

Keanu Reeves is known for his action flicks and good looks. Now he is also going to be known for publishing books! The John Wick actor has published books with the help of Alexandra Grant, a text based painter. After they met back in 2009, they started planning the projects. The result, Ode to Happiness was released by the German publisher Steidl, using poems Reeves had written. A few years after this, they reunited again and published the book Shadows. Keanu Reeves has a list of extracurricular activities he does alongside acting, including playing bass and adding backing vocals for the alternative rock band Dogstar, or co-founding a California motorcycle manufacturer, Arch.

Source: Internet

