Global Recognition

"Considering the authority's achievements to be "astounding" given its limited time in operation, the judges felt that this organization was worthy of recognition for its strong progress over recent years. They also highlighted the authority as a model for replication by other developing countries in the region".

Award Judges, PPP Bulletin

Bangladesh has one of the most robust and enabling environment for PPPs. It received Silver Award as the PPP Promoter of the Year at the PPP Awards 2017. It was followed by an even stronger performance in 2018 when it received the Gold Award in the same category.
