Le Reve's Fall/Winter MEN'S Collection

Making a statement of their own in the world of men's contemporary designer fashion, Le Reve has left no stone unturned when it comes to their Fall/Winter collection with exclusive staples carefully thought-out to cater just to men.

Keeping every occasion that may find you, whether it's during a frosty morning clouded in mists, a winter tide of an afternoon, or a wintry evening under the lights, Le Reve has made sure there is a head-turning way for you to stand out and it all starts with the individualistic theme of Vanguard, symbolising the leading part of an advancing group of people.

The sea of possibilities when it comes to the collection include polo neck sweaters, tartan and poplin shirts, sweatshirts, Prince of Wales formal blazers, hoodies and classic denim apart from trousers, chinos and pants at ankle lengths to ensure warmth this season.

The theme of leading the pack is followed throughout the collection and, so, prints of paisley and plaid in unique colours like orchid, flax, inkwell, verdigris, antique pink, haze, regalia and tapestry have been painted through the shirts and jackets to truly scream 'individualistic'.

And, of course, rich monotones of black, red, blue, green and white have been highlighted for the lovers of classic chic amongst you.

Whether it is a much-awaited winter meet-up with you planning to keep your hands warm cupping a steaming order of coffee, or a corporate meeting where looking dapper goes hand-in-hand with preparation, confidence is what you are guaranteed with Le Reve's collection.

The reason why is — the handpicked fabrics are imported from China and Europe that are sure to leave you with a soft and smooth feel. And if you are going for their formal articles of clothing like blazers, European shirts and formal denim bottoms, you will bask in the feel of the finest two-ply mercerised cotton invoking a silk touch upon contact with your fingertips.

Taking full advantage of layering this winter, the staple winter outfit for a man is a plaid sweater perfect for any social and business appointment when paired with a nice, short-collared shirt underneath.

In extreme winter chills, a standard winter coat will more than do the trick. To add to it still and not sacrificing comfort for aesthetics, accessorise the look by opting for scarves, gloves and even put on a western spin by throwing in a hat, while Le Reve's diverse range of belts and layered bracelets in steel and wooden designs will complete the ensemble.

With t-shirts and polos ranging between Tk 690 and Tk 990 respectively, shopping while the temperatures drop will prove all too easy. Shirts may set you back anywhere between Tk 1,290 and Tk 2,090, whereas jackets and blazers cost around Tk 2,490 to Tk 5,490.

Winter is not just about protecting yourself from the elements, but a window of opportunity to showcase your style and your attention to the finer details, and with Le Reve, nabbing that opportunity is easily done.
