

Joe Perry Back from Hospital

Legendary guitarist Joe Perry is back home after being hospitalized. The guitarist was rushed to the hospital after he collapsed backstage at a Billy Joel concert where he was making a guest appearance. Joe Perry was taken away from the Madison Square Garden show on a stretcher. It has been reported that the doctors ran a series of tests on him, and have come to the conclusion that the 68 year old collapsed due to allergies and fatigue. It has also been reported that he suffered from breathing problems his entire life. After returning home, it seems that the Aerosmith guitarist is on his way to recovery.

Source: Internet

KANYE WEST Donates $150,000

Rapper Kanye West has donated $150,000 to the family of a security guard who was shot and killed by the police. The security guard, Jemel Roberson was working the night shift at a bar in Chicago. After he escorted out a drunken man at around 4 AM, the drunken man tried to open fire at him. He managed to subdue the man, but when the police arrived at the scene they shot Jemel and killed him. His family opened a GoFundMe account to help with Jemel's burial expenses. The XTCY rapper wanted to help reduce the family's burdens after hearing the story, and donated $150,000 to the family.

Source: Internet

JANHVI KAPOOR Prepares for 'Takht'

Actor Janhvi Kapoor, who debuted with the film Dhadak is preparing for her second movie Takht. The film is set to be directed by Karan Johar. Takht features a star studded cast with Kareena Kapoor, Ranveer Singh, Vicky Kaushal, Anil Kapoor, Bhumi Pednekar and a few others. The film's story is set during the Mughal Empire. It has been reported that Janhvi is working extremely hard for the project.

Source: Times of India

