

A P E X

as your wedding comrade

Apex means the peak or the zenith, and Apex Footwear have rightfully proved their worth by living up to the proclamation of being the best. With numerous excellent designs in shoes, they are certainly the best choice for brides and grooms on their special days, including the countless lists of functions like mehndi, holud, sangeet and so on.

THE LADIES' COLLECTION

The wedding collection for the ladies includes almost everything from stilettos to wedges. No longer does a bride have to go abroad for one of the most sought-after wedding accessories! Thanks to Apex footwear, everything is now available in Bangladesh.

Women's wedding range includes chic velvet stilettos in the traditional, but wedding favourites – blooming red, with enough glasswork and beadworks to put the trendiest of shoes to shame.

Even though stilettos and high-heeled ankle straps are the ultimate in stylish shoes, some of us may refrain from wearing those, especially ones susceptible to back pain, or not being able to carry the styles properly.

For them, there are the stylish wedges, both in low to high heels - all covered with exclusive beadwork.

And then, there are the platform heels in shimmering colours of black, golden and pewter. Not a fan of high heels at all? Don't fret, as Apex Footwear doesn't disappoint its clients at all – they have the open backed sandals in beautiful tints of gold and rose gold.

But not everybody attends a wedding wearing the wedding specials! For the rest of the crowd simply attending a wedding; Apex Footwear offers shiny high heels with transparent block heels, in elegant nudes, classic blacks and wild electric blues.
