

Of Gold and Love

Weddings of the subcontinent are never complete without the gold jewellery.

Be it as an asset, status symbol, heritage, or simple appreciation for a thing of beauty – gold jewellery must be there to make an occasion absolute – especially weddings!

Sometimes, the modern women contemplate breaking the tradition, opting for diamonds and platinum, but they soon realise that the sheer glamour a gold-set provides, in a deshi wedding, can never be replaced with any other.

We are pretty sure most will agree to this notion.
