Remembering the legendary ANWAR HOSSAIN

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT DESK

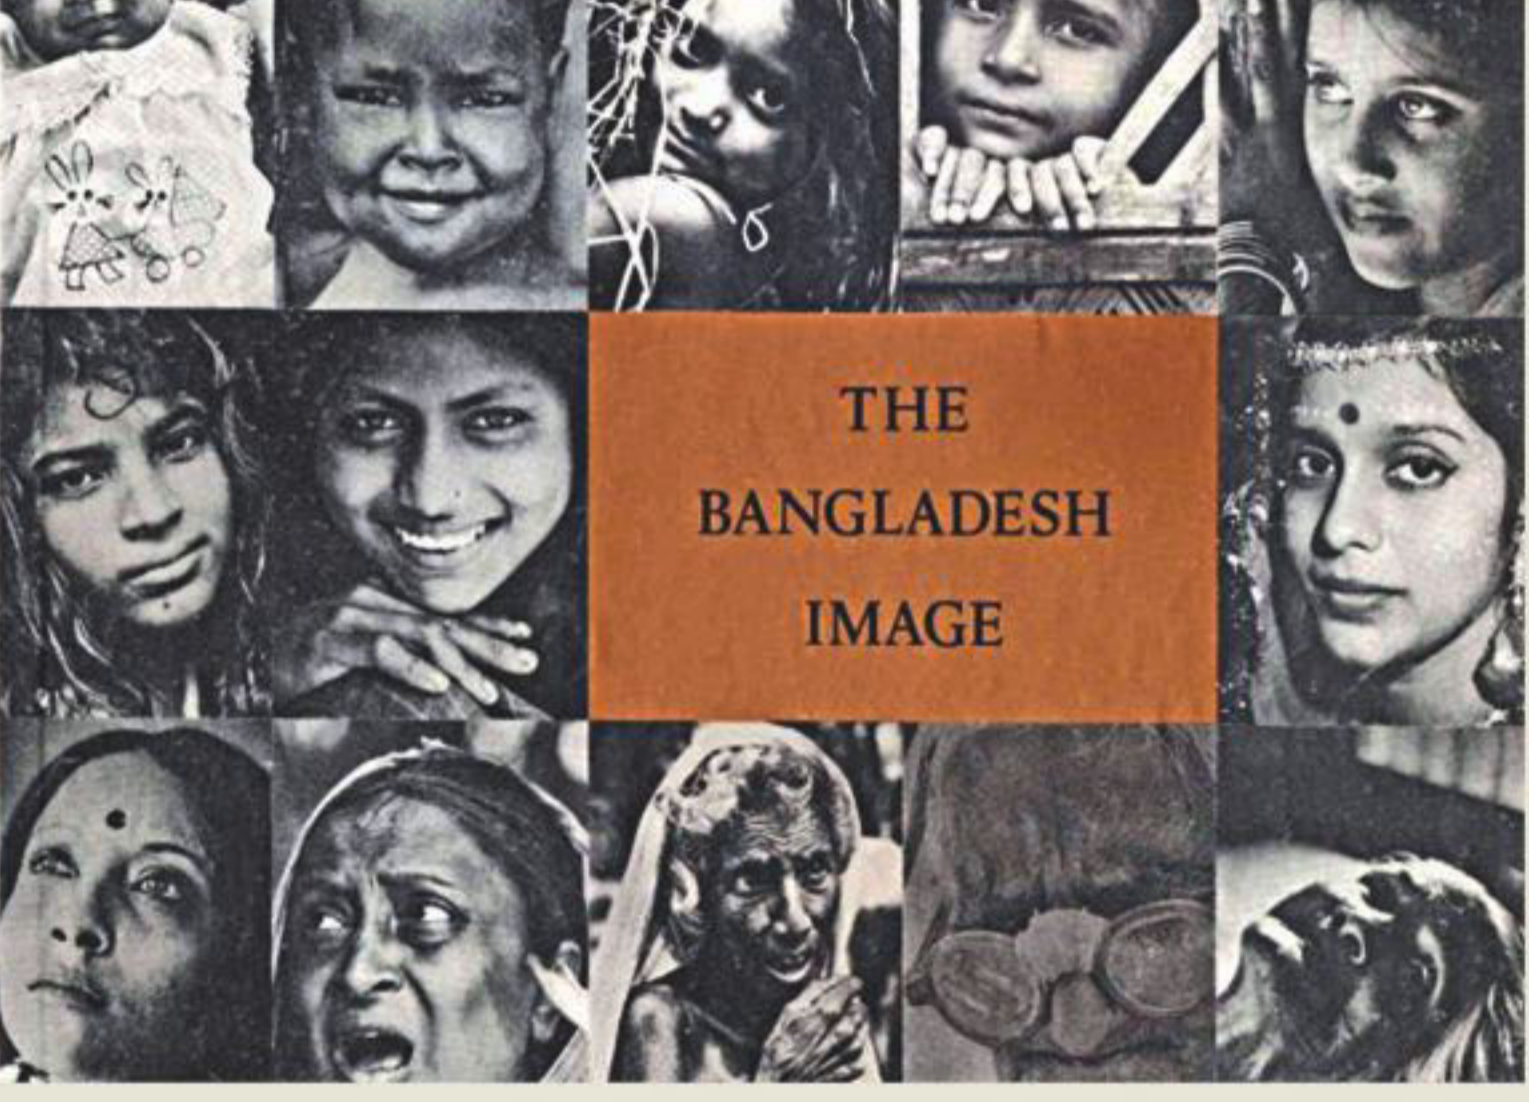

Since starting his career as a photographer in 1967, Anwar Hossain had solidified his legacy as one of Bangladesh's all-time greats in the field with 5 national awards and more than 60 international awards. However, his legacy spans more than tangible awards can portray, having taken some of the most iconic photos of Bangladesh's Liberation War. An equally impressive cinematographer with films like Surja Dighal Bari, Chitra Nodir Pare, Lalsalu and Shyamol Chhaya becoming masterful works under his artistic eye. Today, we mourn the sudden demise of the great man, remembering some of his iconic works.

Depicting the brutality of war.

A memorable capture from 'Surja Dighal Bari', cinematography by Anwar Hossain.

The maestro often depicted themes of life and reality through portraits.

Many happy returns to Suborna Mustafa

SHAH ALAM SHAZU

Among the many artists who have enjoyed prolonged stints in the film and television industry, Suborna Mustafa's career is one of the most illustrious. She is still a regular on television, coming out with quality work from time to time. Today, the amazing artiste will celebrate her birthday.

Suborna Mustafa started her career at a very young age in the radio, where she participated in a lot of radio dramas. Her first cinema was Ghuddi, opposite Raisul Islam Asad. The last film that she was seen in was Gohin Baluchor, which was released in December last year.

"I don't do much to celebrate my birthday," she said to The Daily Star, "I feel like birthdays are more exciting for younger people." However, Suborna Mustafa mentioned that she appreciates the good wishes from her fans, and wants to stay busy with her work.

For the majority of her career, the prodigal actor has ruled the world of cinema, television and theatres. The Daily Star wishes her many happy returns of the day.

Channel i Band Fest takes place in memory of Ayub Bachchu

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT DESK

The 5th Channel i Band Fest lacked its inherently festive atmosphere that the crowd had been used to for years, as the festival mourned the loss of one of the greatest musicians Bangladesh has ever produced, Ayub Bachchu.

The event was inaugurated at 10:30 am at Channel i premises, where its Director and Head of Communications, Shykh Seraj reminisced about the man who had taken Bangladeshi band music to new heights. 17 bands participated in the Band Fest, including the likes of Different Touch, Obscure, Dalchhut, Feedback, Artcell and LRB, which featured AB's son, Tazwar. The event was hosted by Apu Mahfuz, Shafi Ahmed and Dilruba Sathi, and was directed by Anonna Ruma.
