

Katrina Kaif Gives Sister Advice

Sister of Bollywood actor Katrina Kaif, Isabelle Kaif is all set to make her Bollywood debut. Isabelle is set to debut with the upcoming film Time to Dance. She revealed in an interview that Katrina had given her some solid advice. Katrina had apparently told her, "Keep your head down and work hard." Time to Dance, which is being directed by Stanley D'Costa also stars Sooraj Pancholi. Isabelle said regarding working with Sooraj, "It was great. He is really a good dancer and hard working. We had great time shooting for the film with our director Stanley D'Costa. Everyone working in the film was very passionate about it." The film is set to be released in early 2019.

Source: Internet

Meghan Markle

to Return to Hollywood?

Former agent of Meghan Markle, Gina Nelthorpe-Cowne revealed that she thinks the former actor will make movies again. Gina represented the Duchess of Sussex before she got engaged to Prince Harry. Gina said at a party in London's Marylebone, "If Meghan wants to make a movie again, she will, she's a determined woman and she knows what she wants. She's a woman of today, she's got her will and she's a leader." Gina also said, "She'll definitely do something serious. She's not going to be a frivolous little girl like she's been before. And she's a great actress."

Source: Internet

TOMMY LEE

Vs. Travis Scott

Mötley Crüe founding member Tommy Lee has called out rapper Travis Scott for allegedly copying two stage designs he made. Tommy made a post on Instagram where he accused the Sicko Mode rapper of stealing his idea of performing while being strapped to a 60-degree loop. He also accused Travis of stealing the idea of performing on a rollercoaster above the crowd. The Crüecifly, as Tommy calls it was used by Mötley Crüe in 2014. Tommy later made a Twitter post telling the rapper to lawyer up. Travis Scott is yet to respond, but according to another Instagram post by Tommy, Travis seems to have blocked him on the social media site.

Source: Internet

