

WEDDING BELLS

Ringing in Bollywood

After tying the knot in private ceremonies at Italy's Lake Como on November 14 and 15, Deepika Padukone and Ranveer Singh organised a wedding reception in Bangalore for close family and friends. Post that, Ranveer's sister Ritika Bhavnani threw a bash for the newlyweds in Mumbai. And recently, the couple had their first wedding reception in Mumbai. The event took place at Grand Hyatt for close family and friends. Several members of the media were also invited for the reception. The couple also had a star-studded reception in Mumbai on December 01. On the other hand, Bollywood superstar Priyanka Chopra and Texan singer Nick Jonas, formerly part of the Jonas Brothers, tied the knot before family and friends in Jodhpur's Umaid Bhawan Palace. They got hitched on December 01, in a traditional Western ceremony. The Christian ceremony was officiated by Jonas's father Paul Kevin Jonas. The couple had a traditional Hindu ceremony following the Christian wedding on December 02. Post the Hindu ceremony the couple hosted two wedding reception in Delhi and Mumbai.

Catherine Zeta-Jones 'devastated'

Recently, actor Catherine Zeta-Jones revealed that she was "devastated" on hearing the allegation of sexual misconduct against her husband, Michael Douglas. In January, Douglas, was accused by a former employee of behaving inappropriately in front of her 30 years ago. However the actor denied the allegation. Zeta-Jones mentioned, "My children and I were profoundly devastated by those allegations. And I was torn about where my absolute morals lie." The couple is still together, after Douglas assured the family that the accusations were baseless and false.

Channing-Jessie's romance on the dance floor

Channing Tatum and Jessie J were spotted together in public for the first time since news broke that they were secretly dating. The pair was seen watching Channing's Magic Mike Live show in London's Hippodrome on Tuesday, while they spent most of the night sitting apart; it wasn't long before they got cozy with each other though. The love birds couldn't stay away for too long; Channing came and found her for a slow dance to Ed Sheeran's Thinking Out Loud. "They were hugging and she sat on his lap," said a source. "They looked so happy and in love together."