

LOOK OUT FOR NOLOK

Shakib Khan's new film Nolok might get released on Valentine's Day 2019. The film which also stars Bobby was written by Ferrari Farhad. The first part of the film was directed by Rashed Raha. After parting ways with Rashed Raha, the last part of the project was directed by producer Sakib Sonet. The film also stars Mousumi, Omar Sunny, Tariq Anam Khan, Nima Rahman, Rebecca, Shahidul Alam Sachchu and Rajatava Dutta among others. Most of the shooting took place at the Hyderabad Ramoji Film City. The music for the movie was composed by Hridoy Khan and Ahmed Humayun. The vocals for the songs were given by Asif Akbar, Hridoy Khan, Tasnim Anika and others. Shakib Khan said regarding the film, "I acted in this film because I liked the plot. Everyone working on this film is quite young. I really enjoyed working with everyone on the project. But, watching conflicts occur between the producer and director made me feel bad. I wish the film could have been released earlier. The film contains a song called Noboborsho. I have a feeling that this song will get people excited." Bobby said about the project, "The film's story is exceptional. I have never worked in a film with a story like this. I think that after the film gets released, we will not be able to find a single audience member that did not like the film. Audiences will also get to see Shakib Khan in a completely new light." Sakib Sonet said, "Nolok is the kind of film audiences have wanted to see in recent times. I think that all types of audiences will enjoy watching Nolok. We worked very hard for the movie. Even though we faced some problems during the film making process, we managed to finish the shooting. I hope the film will satisfy the audiences."
