

AREFIN SHUVO in Four New Films

Arefin Shuvo has joined the cast of the film Mission Extreme. He will be playing the role of a courageous policeman in the movie. Sunny Sanowar was behind the film's script. Faisal Ahmed will be directing the project. Filming for this movie starts next March. Arefin Shuvo recently finished working on Golam Sohrab Dodul's film Shaapludo. Bidya Sinha Mim starred alongside him in that project. A movie he did in Kolkata, Ahare is waiting to be released. He has also started shooting for a film called Jam. Alongside him, the movie also stars Purnima. Shuvo said, "While picking films, I need to like the character and the script. That's why I can't be seen in many movies. The four films I have worked on had very interesting scripts. I have a feeling that they will be liked by the audiences."

Sabila Nur IN A WEB SERIES

Actor Sabila Nur will be seen in a web series. Ehsan Kabir will be directing it. Sabila said, "I see that most actors now are making web series. It does not have as much censorship as television, so the story can be told better. I decided to work in this web series because of the story. The entire web series is set in a wedding. Since its wedding season, I decided to do this. I also wanted to do this as I enjoy being related to anything new."

THE BUSY SOHANA SABA

Sohana Saba will be seen in quite a few new movies next year. She has already finished working on the Saif Chanda directed film Abbas. Nirob will be seen in the film alongside her. And, if everything goes accordingly, the film she made in Kolkata, Epar Opar will be released at the start of 2019. The film was based on true incidents that happened between two families of Bangladesh and Kolkata during the 1971 Liberation War. Sourav Chattopadhyay will also be seen in the movie. Sohana is also working in a film called Modhur Canteen. That film is based on some important historical events that occurred between 1956 and 1971. It also stars Omar Sunny and Mousumi.
