SIMILE

READ THE SENTENCES.

The wrestler was strong.
The wrestler was as strong as an ox.
He is very busy.
He is as busy as a bee.

The two sentences make the same statement. We are told that the wrestler was strong. But the second sentence expresses the same thing in a more interesting manner. The expression as strong as an ox is called a simile.

A simile is a phrase that describes something by making a comparison between one person or thing and another of a different kind using the word as or like.
