YOU complete me

Style is all about combining elements to achieve the best look, but some accessories are, for obvious reasons, more personal than the others. We all have that one signature piece that we simply cannot do without, one that 'completes you'.

Whether it's a purse, or a clutch, or even a backpack — to each their own!

If you are one of those who cannot do without purses/hand bags, always make sure to invest in good quality, as chances are you will get a good deal of use out of them on a regular basis.

To some, a can't-live-without fashion piece is an earring. Earrings are one of the simplest accessory that can really tie looks together. You may love studs or dangles, but earrings will forever be a fashion must-have.

If you are this kind of a lady and you hoard earrings, make sure to always keep them organised. Earrings are small and so it's easy to forget about them, or even lose them. Keeping them in order will help you find the perfect pair with ease when you are getting ready.

Heels are honestly addictive and to a lot of women, a staple. Stilettos or kitten, blocks or wedges — they are mood-lifters!

If heels complete you, make sure to look out for comfortable ones that would also last long.

Rings are quite the outfit-maker too. They are often super cute and add a touch of panache to every look. The kind of rings that one may opt for depends completely on her personality. But the best thing about rings is that it always enhances an overall look. You can barely ever go wrong with them.

The tips for rings would be to have an eye for some unique, yet chic ones.

Another major staples in styling is a sunglasses. Some women just cannot step outside without their favourite pair of shades. Sunglasses make a statement; which is why they are adored so much. One great thing about sunglasses is that you do not have to own many. Just find the ones that suit your style and they will become a signature.

And finally, a time piece. They go with everything and are an absolute no-brainer. Whether it's a desi-wear or western, wristwatches never fail.

A good one is mandatory as it can really grab all the attention and complete even the simplest of looks. Look out for the chic and elegant ones if you want to find your signature watch.
