discontent upon not winning

Best Actress at 'Golden Globe Awards'

Lady Gaga received significant praise for her role in A Star Is Born, but despite that she did not win the Golden Globe for Best Actress. She was reportedly quite unhappy as she had expected to receive the award. A source said, "She had her acceptance speech ready and written and rehearsed and was certain that she was going to come home with several awards". Many of her fans had also expected her to win the prestigious title, but it was finally given to Glenn Close for her performance in The Wife. Lady Gaga, however, was awarded a Golden Globe for the best original song for her track, Shallow. A picture she posted on Instagram with her award made it clear that the singer, despite not having won the biggest award, was happy to have taken home another Golden Globe to add to her collection.

JIM PARSONS

done with
'The Big Bang Theory'

The final season of The Big Bang Theory had already been a sad affair for fans before Jim Parsons decided he was done playing Sheldon Cooper. When asked about this, he said, "It's both as complex and as simple as just feeling innately that it was time. It speaks to a lot of things, none of them bad. There is no negative reason to stop doing Big Bang". The show could have continued, given its high ratings and huge fan base, but Parsons felt that his character's story had come to an end. He also expressed his sadness about the show's ending, but is excited to see where his career will go next. The popular television sitcom is set to wrap up after its last season this spring.

HARDIK PANDYA

LOSES OUT ON BIG ENDORSEMENTS!

Hardik Pandya has been met with severe criticism after his sexist comments on Karan Johar's talk show, Koffee with Karan. On the show, he bragged about how many women he had previously been with and spoke in a rather belittling manner. People were outraged at his remarks and he was labelled both sexist and misogynistic. His comments have reportedly resulted in him losing several big endorsement deals and the BCCI is also expected to take action against him. He was supposedly collaborating with Bollywood Life, a fitness brand, but it also came to a halt after the incident. However, the cricketer has apologised about his comments with a tweet saying, "After reflecting on my comments on Koffee with Karan, I would like to apologise to everyone concerned who I may have hurt in any way. Honestly, I got a bit carried away with the nature of the show. In no way did I mean to disrespect or hurt anyone's sentiments. Respect."
