

Ershad flies back home

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Jatiya Party Chairman and leader of the opposition in parliament HM Ershad last night returned home from Singapore, after completing treatment.

Ershad, who has been suffering from multiple health complications, left Dhaka on January 20, and was admitted to National University Hospital Singapore.

He landed at the Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport at 10:50pm by a Singapore Airlines flight, SM Faisal Chisti, a JP presidium member told this newspaper.

JP sources said he may join the parliament session within a day or two.

Abdur Rezak Khan sought the seized documents saying that scrutiny of the papers are essential for a legal, useful and proper hearing on charge framing.

The defence will present its depositions after getting the certified copy of the case, the lawyer added.

In response, Special Public Prosecutor Mosharraf Hossain Kajal said the defence should get the certified copy, according to the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC).

However, they did not ask for it in last 12 years, the prosecutor said, adding that defence lawyers are now seeking it only to delay the trial proceedings.

"The defence lawyers have already got all the necessary documents," the prosecutor also said.

On December 9, 2007, the Anti-Corruption Commission filed the case accusing Khaleda and others of causing the state a loss of Tk 137.77 billion by signing an oil-gas exploration deal with Canadian

Their deaths

Another farmer, Shamsher Ali, 70, died the next day, suffering from severe chest pain for a week. On February 2, Rahela Begum, 55, died in her sleep.

"The deceased had reasons behind their deaths," said Dr Abdullah Maruf Faruque, head of the medical team.

"Some were suffering from heart ailments, some had asthma and other chronic diseases. Their deaths are not connected... they were not taken to the right places for treatment," the doctor added.

Visiting the village yesterday, this correspondent, while talking to locals, found out that the village had no nearby medical facility. The nearest government health complex is 18km away.

the academy premises are also showing their themes.

Department of Archaeology has decorated its stall with the theme of historic Rose Garden, while the stall of the Bangladesh National Museum shows a photo of its main building.

The stall of Islamic Foundation has been adorned with photos of the holy Quran and national mosque Baitul Mukarram, while the stall of pro-Awami League Centre for Research and Information (CRI) has been decorated with photos of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

Imrul Kayes, a student of Jagannath University, said the pavilions and stalls look good. What's even better is that the stalls are reader friendly, he added.

A new logo, designed by architect Enamul Karim Nirjhar, has also added to the fair's aesthetic touch. Two main entrances -- one at TSC and another at Doyel Chattar -- have been built with the fair theme -- "Bijoy: 1952 to 1971, Noboporjay" (Victory: 1952 to 1971, New Phase).

Fair Committee Secretary Jalal Ahmed said, "We are trying to uphold the contributions of Language Movement heroes and freedom fighters by decorating the fair thus way".

Meanwhile, a total of 141 new books arrived at the fair yesterday.

40pc brick kilns

When asked about such unabated illegal operation of the brick kilns, the DoE director said most of these were established on the riverbanks and in remote areas, so it is difficult to monitor them.

"If we want to conduct eviction drives, we need magistracy and police support. So, it takes time. That's why, we are not able to do so whenever we want," he added.

In Dasherhat and Jambhudip villages in Barishal's Banaripara upazila, this newspaper found most of the brick kilns being operated defying rules. Firewood was being burned in almost all of those, which the rules do not allow.

Besides, several of the brick kilns were established near schools affecting children, said Anowar Hossain from Jambhudip.

In some cases, influential people are running their business illegally by "managing" the local administration, several residents alleged.

Contacted, Banaripara Upazila Nirbahi Officer Sheikh Abdullah Sadid said they would take steps against the illegal practice as soon as possible.
