You have to 'bujhte hobe'

Relationships are built on a lot of things; love, trust, loyalty, communication. But what about the big and small gestures, all of which account for either the most disastrous, sweetest or even the funniest memories, to lament over?
 Happy Valentine's Day from Fufu and Fufi!

Fufi was moody and feeling very blue.

Fufu came to the rescue with a neatly wrapped present but Fufi was mad because he didn't know what she really wanted!

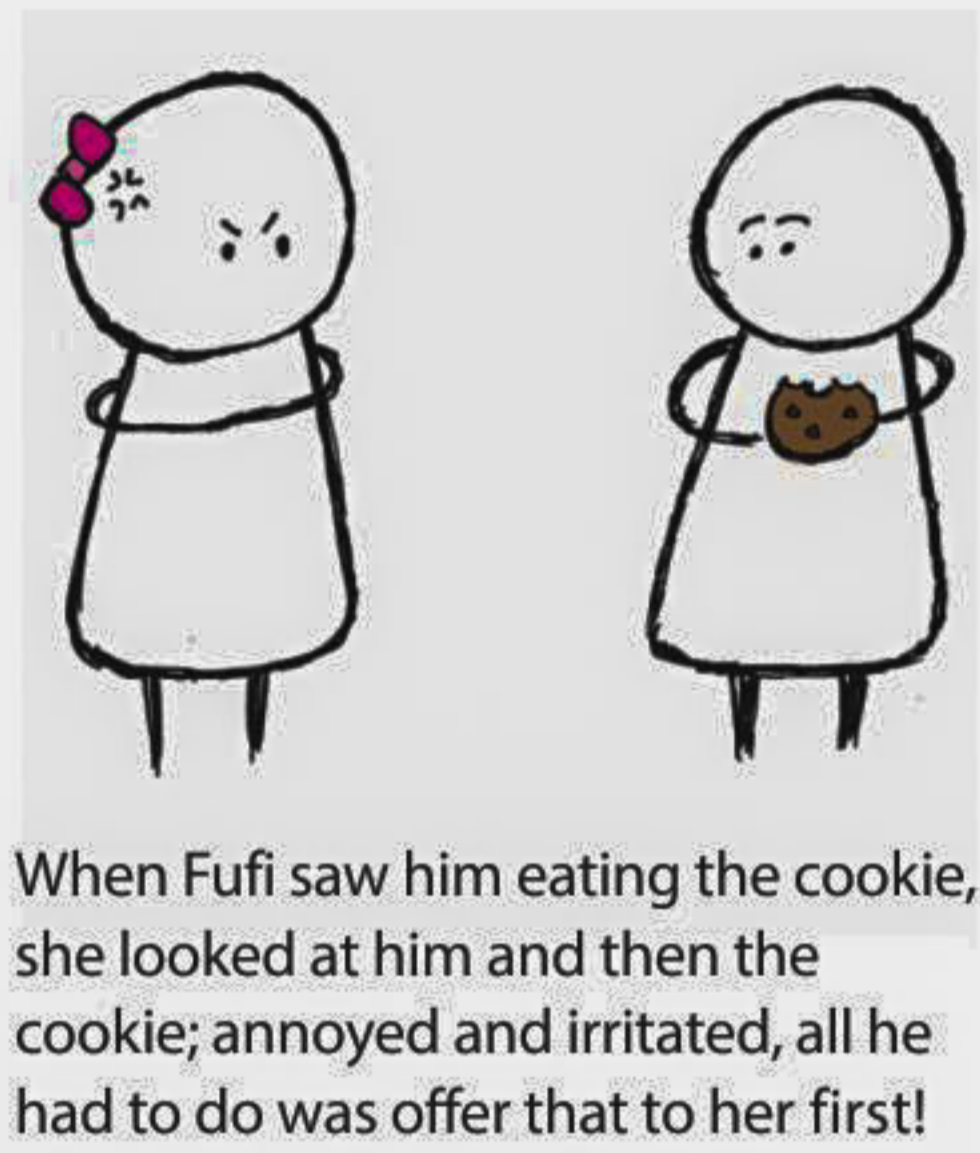

Fufu didn't give up. He thought surprising her with a box of cookies would do the trick.

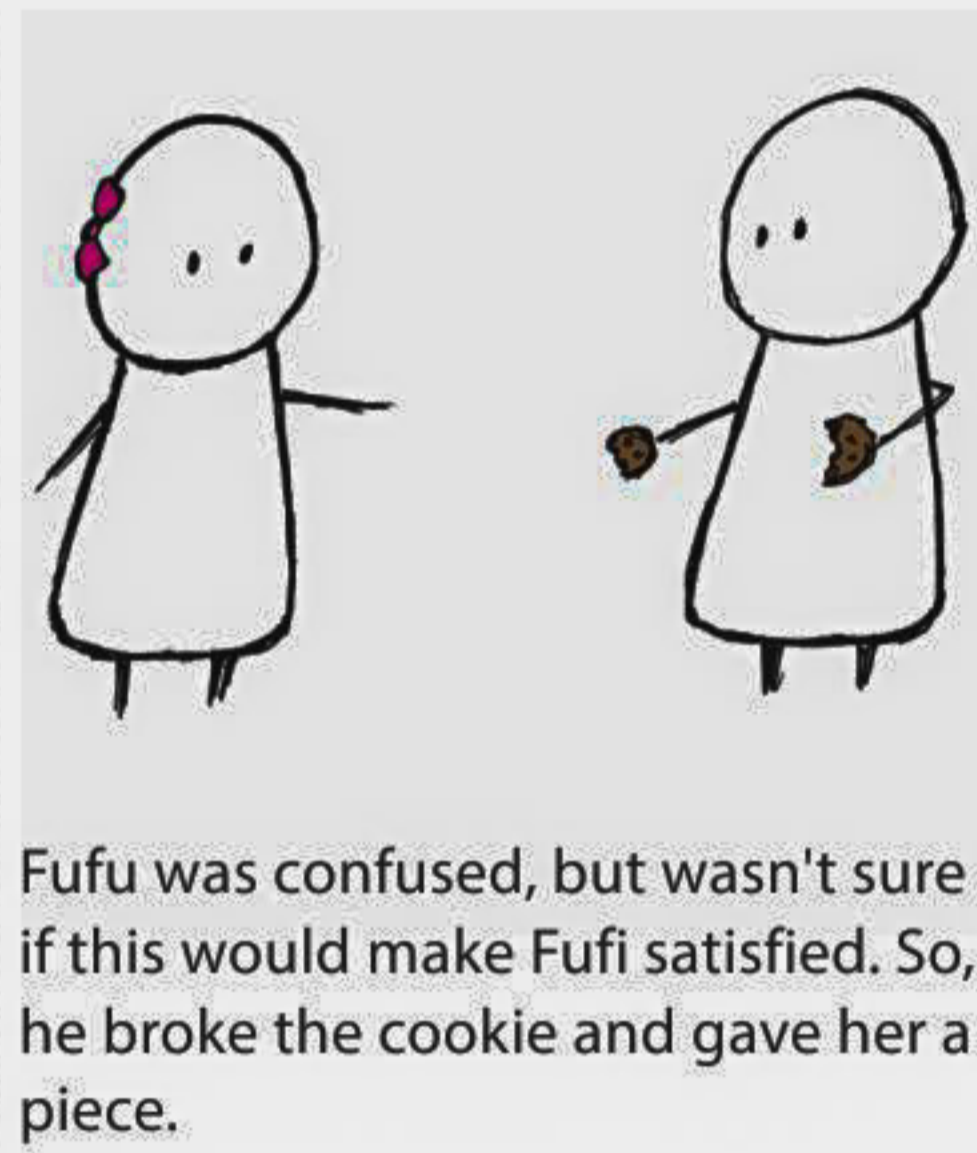

"Another gift?" thought an infuriated Fufi. What she really craved was a simple cookie.

Sad and confused, with nothing more to do, Fufu unwrapped the boxes and ate a cookie.

When Fufi saw him eating the cookie, she looked at him and then the cookie; annoyed and irritated, all he had to do was offer that to her first!

Without a second thought, a hormonally charged wrecker Fufi screamed!

Fufu was confused, but wasn't sure if this would make Fufi satisfied. So, he broke the cookie and gave her a piece.

It's not always smooth sailing, so if your partner is feeling moody, "a cookie" is the secret to your woes!
