

SHOP REVIEW

Excellence at your feet

There lies a certain beauty in wearing shoes which fit perfectly. They exude confidence, something that can only be experienced, not put down in words. It's truly a struggle to find that perfect pair of shoes which not only boosts confidence, but also style and elegance.

Such is the beauty of bespoke shoes; your imagination is at your footsteps. Craftsman Fashion has specialised in the art of bespoke shoe making, giving a regal finish with a long-lasting build. Their timeless craftsmanship, quality leather and of course, their comfort feel are the epitome of sheer brilliance and taste of the workers.

Craftsman Fashion is not only a fashion house, but an institute whose very foundation has been laid by their founder, Sadat Hossain Salim. He is well-versed in the requirements that make up quality footwear. Having worn shoes from all across the globe, Salim has shared his experiences with his team, allowing them to create footwear on par with world renowned Italian shoes.

La Classiq has a beautiful collection of formal shoes, made from full grain lux leather for the upper, goat leather lining, and finished with Italian leather soles. These are your perfect work shoes which you can easily dress up or down. These will go effortlessly with your jeans, chinos, tweeds, anything and everything you can think of, except for your joggers; that you can style with Craftsman's Casanova.

Casanova comprises of a vast line of moccasins, flip-ons, and of course, sneakers. In the words of the makers of Craftsman Fashion, these are — leisurely luxurious. They are made from myriad products like cow suede leather, canvas, and even jute.

What lies in between these two extremes is the Vincent, which is the perfect middle ground for men on the go. These have a touch of panache and youthfulness, as the ingenious craftsmen have added a hint of extravagance in making these shoes. These are slightly less formal shoes, comprising of derbies and penny loafers. Vincent's upper is either made from full grain crust leather, or nubuck leather, along with goat leather lining.

But what if these do not meet your heart's longing? Well, Craftsman Fashion has not specialised in bespoke shoe-making just for the sake of it, but to bring to life the wearers' deepest desire. Fantasies become reality with their elaborate and detailed process of capturing every minute detail of your desired shoe.

For women there is the Craftsman's La Viva collection — a beautiful amalgamation of style and comfort. This hand finished collection has something for every mood, and every occasion, as it comes in myriad styles and colours. Put together with nappa leather and goat skin, La Viva is nothing short of an eye candy.

Craftsman Fashion is a physical embodiment of excellence. The heart and soul their team put in designing and crafting each footwear screams perfection and elegance. Their fast delivery service for ordering online only makes their shopping experience more convenient and fun.

The shoe of your dreams is literally footsteps away.

Address: 6B, 47 Lake Circus, Kalabagan, Dhaka.

Shop online at www.facebook.com/CraftsmanFashion

By Ali Sakhi Khan
Photo courtesy: Craftsman Fashion