New song by KISHORE

Lyricist, composer and music producer, Kishore will be releasing another song, Ami Shudhu Tomake Chai on his own YouTube channel. The music video, directed by Zayed Rizwan, has been filmed in different locations in Sydney, Australia. When asked about the song, Kishore said, "Ami Shudhu Tomake Chai is a love song, but the melody is completely different from the traditional ones." Kishore has been mesmerising the masses with his songs like Jaccho Dure, E Hridoy Kore Tor Sadhona, Kolijay Lage Taan and Bonolota Sen, among others.

Nusraat Faria's New Release

Nusraat Faria is returning to the silver screen soon. The film Shahenshah, starring her, is set to be released on March 22. The Shamim Ahmed Roni directed film also stars Shakib Khan. This is the first time the duo will be seen together. They were recently also featured in an advertisement together. Nusraat said, "This movie will add a new scope to my career path. Acting alongside an actor like Shakib Khan was an amazing experience. I am confident that audiences will love the movie, and are eagerly waiting for it to be released."

Tariq in a new light

Theatre, television and film actor, Tariq Anam Khan has recently finished shooting for the film, Abar Boshonto, directed by Anonno Mamun. He will be portrayed in a new light in the film, where he will be playing the character of a man in his sixties. The film is set to be released in April and actors, Sporshia, Corovi Mizan, Monira Mithu, Mukit

Zakaria, Imtu and others will be sharing the screen with him. Tariq praised the movie, saying, "To know why my character is so unique, the audience must watch the entire film, but I can guarantee that they will experience a new kind of story. The film encapsulates the story of life, humanity, family and loneliness. A film receives positive criticism only when there is a deeper meaning behind it."
