

Zero chemicals; hero toiletries!

AMLAKI

With the offering of a wide range of skin, hair, and body products, Amlaki is a household name. Filled with skin-friendly botanical ingredients, these products are free of the toxic chemicals that usually go into the making of your toiletries. So if you have had enough of the dull harsh skin irritants, say hello to an everlasting healthy glowing skin with Amlaki.

Whether you are looking for a delicate face mask, or something more specific, like toning your skin, Amlaki has it all. Their best sellers include the toners — orange flower toner and the lavender flower variant.

While the orange flower toner gives your skin a brightening effect, the lavender one is ideal for removing acne marks. With active charcoal as the main ingredient, you could also opt for their signature charcoal mask, which removes toxins, blackheads, and acne marks. Alternatively, try their signature clay mask for an overall healthier brightened skin.

For those of you searching for the ultimate hair care solution, why not try their signature hair oil and their signature hair pack? A unique blend of natural oils, this hair oil promotes hair growth, reduces split-ends and also improves scalp health. The hair pack would also improve overall hair quality, leaving your hair soft and shiny. Those with dry hair can opt for the lavender and geranium shampoo, while those with oily hair could look to the rosemary shampoo to take care of their hair problems.

When it comes to body care, Amlaki consists of an exquisite range of oils, scrubs, masks and even detox drinks. As an all-purpose oil for anti-ageing, dark circles and acne, try the Amlaki goodness oil. For dry skin, there is the Amlaki skin glowing oil. With goat-milk brightening soaps and brightening rice flour body scrubs, their products aim to give you an altogether glowing healthy skin.
