

A New Release by ELITA & SHUVO

Elita Karim has gained recognition in the music industry for her astounding vocals. D Rockstar Shuvo also has a huge fanbase. The two recently worked together for a song, Ei Tumi Shei Tumi. The song was launched by Dhruba Music Station. The lyrics were written by Rasel Mahmud and composed by Mark Don. The mix and mastering was done by Amzad Hossain. The music video was directed by Ashfaque Nipun under Pack Up Films. The music video stars Sabila Nur, Yash Rohan and also the singers themselves. Regarding the song, Elita said, "The song contains an element of nostalgia. The composition of the song depicts happiness of the past and present. I hope the audience will like the song." Shuvo said, "I enjoyed working with Elita because she understands the essence of the music. But it was quite challenging to work alongside her. I hope the audience will appreciate my performance." Ei Tumi Shei Tumi is the original soundtrack for the short film Tea-STALL, written and directed by Ashfaque Nipun for iflix. Dhruba Music Station released this song on February 18th on their YouTube channel.

ARIFIN SHUVOO'S 'Aha Re', a hit in Kolkata!

For the first time, a movie starring Arifin Shuvoo has been released in Kolkata. The film called Aha Re, was directed by Ranjan Ghosh. Starring alongside Shuvoo is Kolkata's actor Rituparna Sengupta. This film marked the second time the pair shared the screen. It has been reported that Aha Re has been doing very well in Kolkata. Arifin Shuvoo said, "Aha Re got a lot of love from the Kolkata audience, they liked the movie very much. This is a new experience for me, and the media there assisted me a lot. I am especially thankful to two people for helping me; the director Ranjan Ghosh and my co-star Rituparna Sengupta."

CHILDREN'S BOOK by Mithila

Small screen actor Rafiath Rashid Mithila has added a new talent to her portfolio – writing. She is writing children's stories and soon, these are to be compiled in a series. The stories are targeted towards children aged 7 and above. The series is titled Ayra O Ma Er Obhijaan. According to her, "To work for children, one must explore new locations where they can experience new things. During such times, my daughter Ayra accompanied me. These stories were inspired by those experiences. I feel like the children of our country should know about these topics. This is what led me to write the book. I have talked to a few publishers but nothing has been finalised yet. I am traveling to South Africa soon, and after I return I will finalise the details".

