N'GANJ SEVEN MURDER CASE 4 convicts file appeals seeking acquittal

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Four convicts of the Narayanganj seven murder case yesterday filed separate appeals with the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, seeking acquittal from all charges.

Then commanding officer of Rab-11 in Narayanganj Lt Col Tareque Sayeed Mohammad, company commanders Maj Arif Hossain and Lt Commander Masud Rana of the battalion and expelled Siddhirganj Awami League leader and former Narayanganj City Corporation (NCC) councillor Nur Hossain -- filed the appeals with the apex court challenging a High Court verdict that sentenced them to death.

The HC on August 2017 upheld the death penalty of 15 persons, including the four petitioners, for their involvement in conspiracy, abduction and murder.

The court also commuted the capital punishment of 11 others to life imprisonment. It fined them Tk 20,000 each, in default of which they have to spend two more years in prison.

The apex court is yet to fix any date for hearing the appeals.

Earlier on January 2017, a Narayanganj court sentenced 26 persons, to death and also sentenced nine others to different terms in jail in connection with the case.

Narayanganj City Corporation councillor Nazrul Islam along with his three companions and driver were kidnapped by a team of Rab-11 on April 27 in 2014.

Senior lawyer Chandan Sarker and his driver Ibrahim were also picked up by the same team as they witnessed the abductions.

Subsequently, seven bodies were found floating in the Shitalakkhya river.

Two cases were filed in this connection -- one by Nazrul's family and the other by Chandan's family.

Law minister tells district registrars

BSS, Dhaka

Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Anisul Huq yesterday ordered sub-registrars and district registrars to "break the evil cycle" of corruption at their respective offices.

"Please break that evil cycle. My ministry is ready to provide all kinds of support in this regard. You people work in grassroots, not me. So you have to take steps to break the syndicate of corruption," he said.

The minister made the call while addressing a views-exchange meeting with officials of Directorate of Registration at Judicial Administration Training Institute (JATI) in the capital.

Presided over by Inspector General of Directorate of Registration Khan Md Abdul Mannan, the meeting was also addressed by Senior Secretary of Legislative and Parliamentary Affairs Division Mohammad Shahidul Haque, Law and Justice Division Secretary Abu Saleh Sheikh Md Zahirul Haque and Joint Secretary Bikash Kumar Saha.

Urging sub-registrars to stay corruption-free, the law minister said, "If you act honestly, none will be able to harass you."

"Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina wants to establish rule of law. She waited for 21 long years to get justice after the killings of her family members. She finally got justice after continuing the trial for 14 years. As long as she is with us, no step would be taken against the rule of law," the law minister added.

TAJKATHI CANAL CLOGGED UP FOR YEARS

Locals start clean-up on their own

SUSHANTA GHOSH, Barishal

Fed up by continued indifference from authorities, a group of youngsters voluntarily started cleaning Tajkathi canal in Barishal city on Saturday.

The 1.35km canal, stretching from Radio Centre area to Putiakhal canal, is filled with all sorts of garbage and the situation, according to locals, has remained this way for around three years.

This situation causes waterlogging in Rupatoli Housing, Rupatoli bus stand, Bashundhara Housing, Arafat Housing and Kalijira areas during the rainy season, said Rubel Molla, a resident of Basundhara Housing area.

"As Barishal City Corporation has failed to remove the garbage in the last two years, we started cleaning the canal on our own," said Rubel, president of Bashundhara Housing Youth Students Welfare Association.

"We are using bamboo and sticks in the cleaning drive. We have already cleaned 15 percent of the canal and will be able to finish the rest of the work in the next seven days," said Arafat Hossain, secretary of the association.

"We informed the BCC authorities and ward councillors, but they did nothing. Last year, the entire housing area was flooded with dirty water," he said.

While talking to The Daily Star, many complained about skin diseases due to the situation.

Niaz Rahman, another resident of Bashundhara Housing area, said, "We got tired of enduring this problem and decided to do something about it."

According to the association, a group of youths first started the cleaning drive under its banner and later others joined them.

They said at least 25 volunteers and five day-labourers hired by them are working on this.

Dr Rabiul Islam, acting conservancy officer of the BCC, however, said they also began cleaning drains and
