

Nirob's 'Banglasia'

Popular actor, Nirob starred in a Malaysian movie, five years back. The film is called Banglasia, directed by a Malaysian filmmaker, Namewee. However, the release of the movie was to put to halt for many reasons. The movie has finally been released and hit around 111 movie theatres in Malaysia. This is the first time a Bangladeshi actor will star in a Malaysian film. During the premier, audiences praised Nirob's acting and the movie. Many compared his acting prowess with Hongkong's popular actor, Andy Lau. According to Nirob, the movie may be released in Bangladesh soon. Starring alongside Nirob, is a Singaporean actor, Atikah Suhaime. Besides this, Nirob has finished shooting for the films Target, Abbas, Rodurchaya and Hridoy Jure.

Shooting for the film, Password, starring actors, Shakib Khan and Bubly has finally begun. The movie is being directed by Malek Afsari and produced by Shakib himself. Actor Emon is playing the character of Shakib's younger brother in the film. Emon said, "I have previously acted in another film with Shakib bhai.

EMON starring alongside Shakib

This is the second time I'm working with him and this is a very good project. The audience will like this film, I believe." The storyline is based around a mission. The shooting for the songs will take place in UAE and Turkey and the film is reportedly set to released during Eid-ul-Fitr, 2019.

LIZA'S NEW SONG

Sania Sultana Liza has mesmerized the audience with her recent songs. Following that trend, she has released another music video, titled, Pran Jurey on her own YouTube channel. The song has been composed by Arfin Rumey and the video was directed by Aabid Hasan. According to her, "I wanted to release this song on Valentine's Day, but I couldn't do it on time. Moreover, the Chawkbazar tragedy left me in a depressive state, which further delayed the release of the song."
