

Akshay Kumar & Karan Johar criticised for KESARI

Karan Johar produced film, Kesari, is set to be released on March 21. It is based on The Battle of Saragarhi, which took place in the year 1897. Fans have been excited about the movie's release as it features one of Bollywood's prominent actors, Akshay Kumar. However, the makers of the film have dropped a new song, Sanu Kehndi, which has stirred up some drama. It depicts Akshay and 21 other soldiers taking a break from their regimented life and dancing together. At a period of tension between India and Pakistan, the cheerful song has not been received positively by some. However, many have enjoyed the song, and are eager to watch the movie. The film, which has been directed by Anurag Singh, also features actor, Parineeti Chopra.

RAMI MALEK

to be Next Bond Villain?

According to various news outlets, actor Rami Malek is set to play the next Bond villain. It has been reported that the Oscar-winning actor is set to play the main antagonist in the upcoming Bond 25 film. Apparently, he was offered the role a few months back, but he had to decline it due to his Mr. Robot filming schedule. But now, as his schedule is not as packed, he may be joining the cast. Sources also reported that the film will cast three more major roles, two of them being female leads, and the other one, a CIA agent who is an accomplice to James Bond. According to plans, the film is set for an April 8, 2020 release.
