

HOOKUPS & BREAKUPS

SOPHIE AND JOE'S Wedding Confirmed!

Game of Thrones star, Sophie Turner and singer, Joe Jonas are soon to tie the knot. The lovebirds, who first began dating back in November 2016, and later got engaged at the end of 2017, have been going strong for a long time now. Recently on The Late Late Show with James Corden, Joe finally spilled the beans on what's to come for the two. He said, "We're getting married this year. We're going to have a summer wedding." He also added that the wedding will have a flag rugby game and a flag football game. The wedding is going to be another grand event for the family, and fans are surely expecting quite a few celebrities to make an appearance there.

Actor Varun Dhawan and designer Natasha Dalal's long-term relationship has not been kept under wraps. The couple has been spotted by the paparazzi at various dinner dates and outings with friends and family.

ANOTHER WEDDING IN B-TOWN

They are reportedly set to tie the knot in December, 2019. Varun even talked about his relationship with Natasha on Karan Johar's talk show, and mentioned how he plans to get married soon.

Pete Davidson's whirlwind romance

The Saturday Night Live star, Pete Davidson seems to always be on the news for his alleged new ladyloves, since his break up with popular singer, Ariana Grande. As of January 2019, shutterbugs have spotted Pete and actor, Kate Winslet spending time together after they hit it off at a Golden Globes after-party. Later, on several occasions, the couple was spotted holding hands and showcasing their budding romance in public. Recently, they were not hesitant in sharing PDA at a hockey rink, as they were photographed passionately kissing and cuddling in the stands. So, things are heating up between them and now, they are opening up to being an actual, bona fide couple.
