AIUB presents BYMUN'19: Bangladesh First

AIUB presents "Bangladesh Youth Model United Nations 2019 (BYMUN '19)" was held on February 22-24, 2019, hosted by American International University Bangladesh (AIUB) as the title sponsor as well as the venue partner for the event.

Over 400 school, college and university students from more than 70 institutions nationwide participated in the conference. Traditionally, MUN conferences enable delegates to roleplay as various members of the United Nations and its respective committees. At the end of a conference, the best-performing delegates in each committee as well as delegations, are recognised with awards.

Of the many agendas discussed at the conference, each committee was assigned their own, based on which they were to come up with resolutions and present their ideas. For the first time ever, the conference had the General Assembly take place, following the typical set up of a UN General Assembly. Their incubation partner, YY Goshti, agreed to assist the feasible social ventures from the General Assembly with seed funding, mentorship, office space, training, and additional resources. BYMUNC collaborated with Panjeree Publications Ltd. and Ifad Multi Products Ltd. as their knowledge partner and snacks partner respectively.

AIUB is proud to be engaging in a dialogue working towards identifying challenges, opportunities, and more importantly, solutions to redirect the trajectory of the country's growth for the years to come. With rigorous sessions on practical applications of global scenarios and its impact on a national level, the participants experienced a holistic personal and professional development programme.
