The surrender of 102 drug lords on February 16 now seems merely an eyewash as the yaba empire in Teknaf remains mostly intact with some of their family members and paid agents taking care of the illegal trade.

The Daily Star got the picture through an independent investigation in Teknaf, a coastal town bordering Myanmar, about one and a half months after the surrender of the yaba godfathers and dealers.

Take the case of yaba dealer Md Jubayer Hossain, 30. Previously wanted in half a dozen narcotics cases, he is now in Cox's Bazar District Jail.

Son of Md Osman Gani, Jubayer owns a luxurious mansion at ward-9 of South Jaliapara union of Cox's Bazar's Teknaf, on the west side of the Naf, a

Sohel dies a hero

The firefighter, injured trying to save people from FR Tower blaze, breathes his last

RAFIUL ISLAM

Four years ago, a poor family in Kishoreganj dreamt of better days as their eldest son, Sohel Rana, had joined the Fire Service and Civil Defence as a fireman.

The education of his two younger brothers, the funds for which had dried up, resumed once again. Everything was on the right track and plans for a more financially-secure future were being thought up.

Two days before Sohel, 25, was supposed to visit home to buy an auto-rickshaw for one of his brothers, he sustained severe injuries while rescuing people trapped in the Banani FR Tower fire on March 28.

After fighting death for 11 days, he succumbed to his injuries early yesterday at Singapore General Hospital at 2:17am, fire officials said.

His body reached Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport around 10:45pm, said his brother-in-law Jashim Uddin.

His family members and top fire service officials, including its Director General Brig Gen Sazzad Hossain, received the body and placed wreaths on the coffin.

The body was taken to the Combined Military Hospital morgue. Family members would take the body to his village for burial after a namaz-e-janaza at the fire service headquarters around 11:00am today, officials said.

As the light of his life went out, so did the dreams of his family. Their sole bread-earner was gone.

At one stage, she was taken to the roof of the madrasa's three-storey administrative building. She saw four people wearing veils, burqa and hand gloves there.
