

Arifin Shuvoo's Mission Extreme

Popular actor, Arifin Shuvoo performed his own stunts in a dangerous plot sequence for the movie, Mission Extreme. He has risked his safety for the sake of acting. The shooting for the film is currently taking place in the midst of a dense forest, and once they pack-up, the unit will fly to their next shooting spot. The movie is being co-directed by Sunny Sanwar and Faisal Ahmed. The story and screenplay have also been written by Sunny Sanwar. Shuvoo said, "It is an action-packed movie. The stunt shooting for the film has been risky, and I was injured a few times while doing them. Till now, I have not taken the help of any stunt double, and continued to do all my stunts myself. I am hopeful that the audience will see something new and better." Mission Extreme is the second time a movie about the special police force is being made in Bangladesh. The cast also includes Jannatul Ferdous Oishee, Sadia Nabila and Taskeen Rahman.

Puja CHERRY ventures out of JAAZ

After delivering hit films with JAAZ Multimedia, Dhaliwood actor, Puja Cherry has finally decided to join a new banner. She will be seen playing the female lead beside her former co-star, Siam in M. Rahim's new directorial venture, Shaan. Shooting for the film is expected to start from May, this year. Regarding this, Cherry said, "I won't reveal much about the movie now. Siam will be the male lead, and I am very excited about it as we have worked together in a couple of movies before. The two films in which I have worked with him have been praised and appreciated by the audience. I am busy these days preparing myself for the new role. All I can say is, the plotline will be very different from the other movies." Puja Cherry had previously played the lead in four movies: Nur Jahan, Poramon 2, Dohon and Prem Amar 2.
