

Nipun's Web Series

Actor Nipun is all set to flaunt her acting skills in her first web series. The web series to be streamed on the online platform, Bioscope, will also feature actor, Riaz, opposite Nipun. Tuhin Mitul will direct the web series, based on a story by Adity Majumder. Regarding the web series, Nipun said, "I will be playing the role of a girl, called Elora in the web series. I have always been very picky about the projects I take, and these days, since I am not able to devote much time to showbiz, that pickiness has only increased. What I liked about the script is the fact that this has been based on a real-life story. Plus, this is going to be my first web series, so I am very excited about this venture."

Anniversary Trip

Popular Indian model, actor, film producer and fitness promoter, Milind Soman and his wife, Ankita Konwar have been under the spell of love for more than a year now. The lovestruck couple went to Maldives to celebrate their first wedding anniversary, and spent some quality time with each other. The exotic vacation pictures posted by his wife on her Instagram handle can vouch for their sizzling chemistry. She captioned it, "Today, Tomorrow, Forever". This is not the first time the couple has shared intense PDA moments with their fans, and gave out major couple goals. In the photo, Ankita dressed herself in a printed pink coverall over a bikini and Milind Soman looked ravishing in a navy blue shirt and black shorts. The couple tied the knot in a traditional Assamese-Maharashtrian wedding on April 22, 2018 in Alibaug.

Another Royal Affair

It's a fairy tale affair this time between Princess Beatrice and Count Alessandro "Alex" Mapelli-Mozzi's son, Edoardo Mapelli Mozzi. Mozzi, a billionaire property developer, and Princess Eugenie's elder sister, Beatrice have known each other for many years through the friendship of their parents, and have been head over heels in love since September, last year, when they had been reintroduced to each other, through some friends. A close friend of the princess, recently revealed to a British tabloid, "I don't know if he has actually got down on one knee with a ring yet but they are openly talking about marriage and it will either be later this year or possibly early in 2020." It has also been reported that the lovebirds have moved in together at St James's Palace, a few months into their whirlwind affair. The duo only recently made their official debut as a couple at the National Portrait Gallery's 2019 Gala. Since then, they have been spotted together in various events. Mozzi has a toddler named Wolfie with his former fiancée, Dara Huang; while the princess had called it quits in 2016 with her boyfriend of a decade, Dave Clark.

Shockingly Available!

While everyone is either getting engaged or walking down the aisle, Hollywood's sublime muse, Charlize Theron is still exclusive. The well-acclaimed Oscar-winning actor and producer, in a recent interview claimed that she has been single for a decade now, and said, "I'm shockingly available." Even her Long Shot's co-star, Seth Rogen added to her reply by saying, "She is out there and currently available." Being one of the most gorgeous and breathtaking beauties in the world, the fact that she still finds it difficult to manage a date is fairly surprising for all. She previously was engaged to actor, Sean Penn, and later called it quits in 2015. Ever since then, the star has remained the forbidden fruit that everyone desires to have, but is too scared to reach out to. However, lately, there were rumors about her linking with actor, Brad Pitt, but the news was dismissed as just a speculation.
