

Christian co-operative to build hospital

CITY DESK
The foundation stone of Dhaka Credit Divine Mercy General Hospital was laid in Kaliganj of Gazipur on Saturday, says a press release.
The proposed 300-bed hospital belongs to the Christian Co-Operative Credit Union Ltd, Dhaka (Dhaka Credit). It is going to be the first co-operative hospital in the history of Bangladesh.
Meher Afroze Chumki, former state minister for women and children affairs and incumbent lawmaker from Gazipur-5 constituency, attended the programme as the chief guest.
Cardinal Patrick D'Rozario CSC and Apostolic Nuncio to Bangladesh Archbishop George Kocherry were present as guests of honour.
Dhaka Credit President Babu Markus Gomes presided over the programme.

about the incident to her grandmother on Saturday, he said.
Family members took her to a hospital in Tongi on that day, where doctors referred to her to the Dhaka Medical College Hospital.
DMCH police informed Dhakkahin

Khan Police Station about the rape when her father filed a case as per suggestion of police on Saturday night, he said.
Police arrested the doctor and produced him before a court, which sent him to jail.
The doctor did not confess to the accusation in primary interrogation, said an official of Dakkhin Khan Police Station.

detained the pickup driver Anisur Rahman from Ashulia.
Police found Suman's initial claim that Labannya fell on the road when he slammed the brake to save a jaywalker to be false.
Biplob said the pickup driver was the prime accused but at the same time, the biker was also guilty. He was driving recklessly and braking frequently.
Police will investigate further to bring charges against the biker, he said, adding that Suman provided false information while receiving treatment at Suhrawardy Hospital after the accident happened.
Biplob said Uber authorities cannot avoid responsibility for registering Suman without verifying his address, and legal action would be taken against those found negligent.

Initially, police did not receive any assistance from Uber regarding the matter despite contacting the company on several occasions, he said while replying to a query.
Biplob said it was not right to register a motorbike just by verifying documents. Authorities should check the drivers' mental and physical fitness, he added.
Contacted, Uber in a statement said, "We are deeply saddened by this tragic incident and wish to reiterate our deepest condolences to the rider's family. We always have and will continue to assist law enforcement authorities in any way possible."

sectors last year, which were 307 and 131 in 2017, it said.
The report also said a total of 334 labour demonstrations took place last year. Of them, the highest of 123 were in garment sector, which were mostly related to increment of monthly minimum wage.
Sharing the report findings at the press conference, Wajedul Islam Khan, joint secretary general of BILS, said Bangladesh has developed significantly in recent decades, but the development would not remain sustainable if the workers' rights are not ensured.
"Garment is the sector from which the country earns the highest revenue. To keep this as well as the other sectors alive, we have to think of the life and work environment of the workers," he said.
The noted labour leader urged the government and employers to pay workers properly, increase their salary timely, not to give them excessive workload and ensure a safe, decent workplace.
BILS organised the event marking International Commemoration Day for Dead and Injured Workers.

its senior leaders were handed down punishment for crimes against humanity. The Election Commission in October last year also cancelled the party's registration.
In an impromptu reaction to the new initiative, ruling Awami League acting general secretary Mahbubul Alam Hanif on Saturday said those behind the move were none other than Jamaat men.
"They don't have any right to do politics even if they change their name and identity," he told reporters at a programme in the capital.
"BNP HAS FACED MORA DEFEAT"
About the oath-taking of BNP lawmaker Zahidur Rahman (from Kurigram-3 constituency) against his party's decision, Nasim said BNP has met its political failure and that has been proved through the oath.
The BNP leaders elected in the December 30 national election have started to come to the parliament, and other lawmakers are expected to be the part of the parliament, he said.
Claiming that Bangladesh is a country of communal harmony, Nasim said, "We want peace across the globe as religion does not support killing of innocent people."
The veteran leader also underscored the need for unity to resist the acts of terrorism and militancy.

pressure on Myanmar, particularly when they will come to know that initiatives are in full swing.
State Minister for Foreign Affairs M Shahriar Alam was chief guest at the seminar.
The event was chaired by DCAB President Raheed Ejaz.
Foreign Secretary M Shahidul Haque, UNHCR Representative in Bangladesh Steven Corliss and DCAB General Secretary Nurul Islam Hasib were also present.
Prof Imtiaz said it is high time for Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina to visit China and India promoting solutions, stretching from repatriation to formation of safe zones inside Myanmar for Rohingyas.
He said competent teams should visit important capitals around the world to persuade policymakers and other stakeholders regularly and repetitively.

The expert said Bangladesh is not the only country where Rohingyas are living; there are over 19 countries where they reside.
He suggested holding an international conference on Rohingya crisis inviting all 19 countries, including members of the media, human rights organisations, researchers and other civil and political stakeholders.
"This should be done every six months -- one in Bangladesh and one outside Bangladesh," Prof Imtiaz said, adding that publication and dissemination of reports and visual footage from conferences would add to the knowledge on Rohingyas and put pressure on Myanmar.
