

TAMED wild prints

If you are one of those naysayers screaming sari has seen its pinnacle and foresee only a downward tumble, we have news for you. Our love affair has been for eons, and it shall stay that way!

Go wild with vivacious prints and sport it with a tank top of subdued green. Wrap the six yards around the body and take the anchal for a three-sixty degree turn around the neck. Just might give the scarf a run for its life. And those glasses...just adds a touch of panache.
