

CHIT-CHAT

Siam Ahmed

Can you describe yourself in 3 words?
I would have to pick passionate, hard working and a dreamer.

What is your favourite childhood memory?
My memories from my school years are my favourite.

If you could have any superpowers, what would you choose?
I would love to have the ability to become invisible whenever I wanted, because I would get to know what people thought about me in my absence.

What are the first 3 items on your bucket list?
Firstly, I would love to visit all the countries I dream about. I also want to spend a stress free weekend with my parents. Lastly, I would love to invest my time doing different kinds of charity work, such as helping children with autism.

If you could work with any international artist, dead or alive, who would you choose?
I would love to work with Christian Bale as I am a big fan of his works; and from Bangladesh, I would definitely have to choose Salman Shah.

What is your favourite place to visit?
My favourite place is Cox's Bazaar. I would choose to go there whenever I can.

What is your favourite food?
My favourite food of all time is khichuri with fried eggs and achaar.

If you won the lottery, what would you do with the money?
I would invest the money in the film industry and encourage the making of better films for the audience.

Who was your first celebrity crush?
My first celebrity crush was Monica Bellucci.

What kind of music do you like to listen to?
I listen to all kinds of music but recently I have developed a taste for jazz. I find it very soothing.

What would you do if you were elected as the president for one day?
I would try to become the prime minister as I would have more power. I would then attempt to bring change in our educational system as I believe there are some problems at the root of it. I believe that a very important part of education is teaching the students how to become good human beings, as it is something that cannot be taught once people grow up. Japan has succeeded in creating a good educational system and I want the same for our country.

What is your all-time favourite movie?
I would have to choose Life Is Beautiful.

If you could be any animal, what would you be?
I would want to be a black panther as they are very calm and poised, but when they attack their prey, they can be very fierce. I think these are important qualities to have. However, I think my friends would say I resemble a fox since I can be very mischievous.
