Eid shopping frenzy grips Sylhet

DWOHA CHOWDHURY, Sylhet

With Eid just around the corner, people are thronging shopping malls and roadside shops in Sylhet city to buy their desired items.

From morning till midnight, the shops are bustling with crowd. Tailoring shops are equally crowded with people taking deliveries of their dresses. Favourable weather has also enhanced this year's shopping experience.

Shopping hotspots in the city include Nayasarak, Zindabazar, Kumarpara, Jail Road, Lamabazar and Amberkhana -- where most shopping malls and brand outlets are located.

On the other hand, low and lower-middle income people are thronging makeshift shops on footpaths and roads in Bandarbazar, Zindabazar and Chowhatta areas.

Female shoppers were seen buying dresses, bangles, earrings and other items, while male shoppers looked for panjabis, shirts, pants, tupi (prayer caps), tasbih (prayer beads) and other products.

During a recent visit to shopping malls and markets around the city, shoppers said prices of products varied depending on location. At some places it seemed quite reasonable while it was quite high at some other places.

Maruf Ahmed, a businessman, was seen shopping at a premiere lifestyle retailer in Jail Road area with his family on Thursday night. "The store just moved to a new location. It's much bigger and has a better collection now. It's also more crowded."

Missing teenager found dead in M'singh

Kishoreganj man killed 'by father-in-law' OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

A teenager was found dead in Mymensigh on Thursday, a week after he had gone missing.

On information from locals, police recovered the body of Abu Taher near a river in Borogaon village in Trishal.

On May 24, the 13-year-old went out of his Southkanda village home on a bicycle to visit his maternal uncle's residence in neighbouring Borogaon area, Trishal police quoted the family as saying.

The family members started searching him on being informed that Taher did not reach his uncle's home, Officer-in-Charge Md Azizur Rahman told The Daily Star yesterday.

They filed a general diary with the police station on May 27, said the OC.

Taher's father Nazrul Islam filed a murder case with the police station accusing unnamed persons after the body was recovered. The victim's bicycle and cellphone were not found, said the police officer.

Police sent the body to Mymensingh Medical College

Hospital morgue for autopsy. Taher was an eighth-grader at local RG High School. His father is a textile mill worker, the OC said. In Kishoreganj, a man was hacked to death allegedly by his father-in-law in the town's Purbo Tarapasha area on Thursday. The victim was identified as Omar Faruq, 28, from the town's Batrish area.

He and his father-in-law Bakker Mia argued over family affairs at the latter's house, Sadar Police Station Officer-in-Charge Abu Bakar Siddiq quoted the family as saying.

At one stage, Bakker started hacking his son-in-law with a long knife, killing him instantly, said the OC.

Omar Faruq's wife Sharmin Akter filed a case with the police station against her father, who has been on the run since the incident.
