

IMBUE YOUR INTERIORS

with elegance this Eid

What a wonderful time of the year it is right now! The blessed Ramadan has brought us the opportunity to get closer to Allah yet again, and we couldn't be more grateful. With anxious anticipation, we are awaiting the Eid day, and preparations for it are in full swing to make sure everything is perfect for the big day! By now, Eid outfits and most of the work is sorted; home decor is where all attention should now be.

Eid is a celebration of life and friendship, and our homes are where our hearts are. Setting the tone at home for good times enhances the spirit of wellbeing like nothing else. The aroma of fresh flowers and scented candles, the twinkle of gold cutlery and sparkle of crystal vases are some of the little things that make Eid day so special! Your home deserves to look exceptional for the festivities, so read on for exciting ideas and tips!

Let's start with the basics; tweaking the upholstery or changing some furniture pieces is key to achieving a new look, instead of changing everything.
