A joyous Eid for the stars

SHAH ALAM SHAZU

From spending quality time with friends and loved ones to having delicious meals, the festivities of Eid-ul-Fitr are something everyone truly looks forward to. In this case, Bangladesh's famous faces are no exception. In a candid chat with The Daily Star, popular actors reveal what they have been up to during the Eid holidays.

SHAKIB KHAN: This Eid, I was occupied with the promotional campaigns and the release of my film Password, which was produced under the banner of my own production house, SK Films. It is exciting to visit cinema theatres and observe my fans' reactions to the film. We have received a tremendously good response for Password so far.
ZAHID HASAN: My Eid holidays are incomplete without a trip to my hometown, Sirajganj. I go there every year to pay my respects at my parents' graves and pray for them. I also like catching up with my childhood friends there.

MAHFUZ AHMED: After celebrating Eid with my mother in Dhaka, I headed out to Australia to spend some quality time with my wife and kid. We want to visit some beautiful locations of the country and have a great family vacation!

APURBA: I spent Eid with my parents, wife and son in Dhaka. Many of my relatives came over to our home on the occasion. Generally, I do not prefer going abroad during the Eid holidays. Rather, I like meeting up with my friends and loved ones in Dhaka. Nevertheless, I might go on a road-trip to somewhere nearby the city, with my family.

A breezy Eid for APARNA GHOSE

SHAH ALAM SHAZU

Aparna Ghose is one of the most sought-after actors in television today. The National Award winner is now a household name, and has appeared in a lot of Eid projects this year. The charming diva talks to The Daily Star about her current work, future plans, and more.

How many projects have you starred in this Eid?
 I have been featured in many tele-fictions this time. Some of them are: Classless Mochless opposite Afran Nisho, Amader Dinratri and Jomaj opposite Mosharrar Karim, Ahoto Beshi Ful o Shugondho Colony and Shadow, among others. I have also acted in two 7-part television dramas, one of which is Shobar Ekta Golpo Thake opposite Zahid Hasan.

You are often seen taking on new characters in your projects. Which ones did you enjoy the most this time?
 All of them were unique in their own way. In Shadow, I play a school teacher. The story revolves around a schoolgirl getting raped, and how my character handles the situation. Ahoto Beshi Ful o Shugondho Colony is a story about people of poor socioeconomic status in the society, where my character has to fight for bread every day of her life, amidst many other troubles. The other projects I've worked in all have interesting characters.

How did you spend Eid?
 I was in Chattogram, spending time with my loved ones. I also watched my tele-fictions and telefilms on TV, something that I rarely get an opportunity to do. I'll also check out the work of my fellow actors and friends.

When will the shooting for your new film, 'Gondi', start?
 It is scheduled to start in December. A little girl is supposed to star in the film, and her school ends in September. Indian star Sabyasachi Chakrabarty, who is also in the film, has also given his schedule at that time. I can say that I am very hopeful about this film, and like Bhuban Majhi, it will be a great one.

Zakiya Bari Mamo will star in a special Eid tele-fiction airing at 8 pm on Ekushey TV today. Titled 'Mohuar Attohonon', it will also feature actors like S M Jonny and Pirjada Harun among others. It is directed by Boron Nath.

Nagorik TV will broadcast 'Slowmo Solaiman' today at 9:20 pm. Directed by Rahat Mahmud, the tele-fiction stars Sabnam Faria opposite Tawsif Mahbub.
