

BOBITA'S Eid Celebrations

Veteran actor Bobita celebrated her Eid this year with a bunch of underprivileged children of Dhaka. She arranged a get-together at her place for them to enjoy the Eid celebrations. Bobita is the DCI Goodwill Ambassador and has been associated with this initiative since 2010. Distressed Children &

Infants International (DCI) is an organization that focuses on giving better opportunities to those in need and focuses on the crises faced by the children in countries like Bangladesh, India, Nepal. This time around, Bobita wanted to spread the joy of Eid among the deprived children and make their day special. While talking with Star Showbiz, Bobita said, "I find great joy in contributing to the society and helping those in need. It gives me happiness and comfort. I spent a great day with these amazing children and I loved how they performed and shared their stories with me."
