Germany's SEA Kitchens opens flagship showroom in Dhaka

The leading German modular kitchen brand brings 300 exclusive unique kitchen designs.

German SEA Kitchen is a 101-year-old legacy, standing for unique modular kitchen and wardrobe designs, combined with impeccable customer service and highest German quality standards.

A SEA product integrates into the overall interior design through its highly customisable products, exclusive designs, and handpicked materials, while keeping the product quality and longevity in mind. It reflects their dedication in delivering innovative products, which blend perfectly into the overall design scheme.

On 2 May, 2019 SEA, the leading German modular kitchen brand, announced its presence in Bangladesh by opening a showroom at Banani, Dhaka, that showcases a wide range of latest designs.

A joint venture with local Coffee People Ltd., the new showroom at Banani will further strengthen the presence of SEA in the Asia-Pacific region. A well-furnished kitchen can help make one's cooking a more enjoyable experience. SEA Kitchens offers excellent services, including creative, durable and high quality kitchen interior solutions.

Its unique designs use materials and finishes that mirror nature and are inspired by the elements. The glass, ceramic, wood or even lacquer finishes make up bespoke kitchens that truly reflect the personality of the homeowner.

His Excellency E Peter Fahrenholtz, Ambassador of Federal Republic of Germany in Bangladesh, was present at the opening event. Alexander Sofalvi, MD of SEA Group and Inga Buchholz, COO of Sea Group, welcomed many high-profile architects and interior designers to the grand showroom opening.

The showroom is designed to let customers experience exceptional kitchen designs, unparalleled customer service, and outstanding quality. In various bespoke kitchen designs, SEA presents its latest product range and shows the latest collection of carefully selected materials and finishes.

A dedicated SEA Team is now permanently present in Dhaka to create unique bespoke kitchens, which expand the horizon of what is possible.

Niharika's latest collection at Cannes 2019

Designer and owner of 1972 Couture Jewellery, Niharika Momtaz unveiled her Red Carpet Collection of couture jewellery TIJORI on 21 May, 2019 during the 72nd Cannes Film Festival. Each single piece illustrated the intricate work of art by expert craftsmen spread across Asia that graced Ms Cannes 2019 and the Face of Tiffany & Co 2018. The collection highlighted the sacred treasure chest of the Mughals which sparkled with the models as they showcased the collection on the runway. Her collection included sparkling neck pieces, arm bands and cuffs—a medley of vintage artwork and European Utopia.

TIJORI by 1972 was celebrated by prominent producers, actors and designers from all across the globe in a stunning show at Carlton Ballroom, standing proudly alongside the French Riviera.

Momtaz, who is no stranger to Cannes, appeared in a black gown accessorised with a feathered brooch and a classy sleek swept back hair-do during the show.
