

Provide employment instead of allowance

Nat'l forum for the disabled urges govt

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Allocation for persons with disabilities is insufficient and inappropriate in the national budget for the fiscal year 2019-20, Jatiya Protibondhi Forum said yesterday.

The non-government organisation -- working for the rights of disabled individuals -- demanded that the government, in the budget, should focus on ensuring their employment instead of only providing them allowance.

The forum placed the demand while providing its post-budget reaction at a press conference held at Jatiya Press Club in Dhaka.

Selina Akter, secretary general of the organisation, said the government allocated a small amount of money for disabled persons in the budget and most of it will be spent through social safety net programmes.

'SEXUAL HARASSMENT'

RU students demand teacher's punishment

OUR CORRESPONDENT, RU

Students of Rajshahi University (RU) formed a human chain yesterday on the campus demanding punishment of a teacher who allegedly sexually harassed two female students of Institute of Education and Research (IER).

Over 100 students of different departments, mostly from IER, gathered in front of Syed Ismail Hossain Siraji building around noon.

Last week, two IER students filed separate complaints of sexual harassment with RU authorities against their teacher, IER Assistant Professor Bishnu Kumar Adhikary.

Speakers at the human chain demanded removal of the accused teacher immediately.

Final round of 'Debate for Harmony' held

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Final round of inter-university debate competition "Debate for Harmony (DFH)" was held at Bishwo Shahitto Kendro yesterday. Students of 12 universities and madrasas took part in the event, said a press release.

The team from Southeast University won the competition, defeating Primeasia University.

DFH and Manusher Jonno Foundation arranged the event, starting in January.

Primeasia University VC Abdul Hannan Chowdhury, Jahangirnagar University Prof Anu Muhammad, DFH Chairperson Md. Shafiqur Rahman, Adviser Mizanur Rahman Khan and President Tarek Aziz, and MJF Project Director Shahriar Mannan spoke at the event.

RCC announces budget with focus on infrastructure

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Rajshahi

Rajshahi City Corporation Mayor AHM Khairuzzaman Liton yesterday declared Tk 547.18 crore budget for the 2019-20 fiscal, with major focus on infrastructural development.

In his speech at Rajshahi Nagar Bhaban auditorium, the mayor informed that the city corporation has proposed to the government for approving a Tk 2,995.11 crore project for development of road networks and another worth Tk 2,973.38 crore for the city's infrastructural development.

However, of the 32 development plans for the city that he elaborated on, only one was for the city's underprivileged populace.

Replying to a question in this regard, the mayor said many of their development activities for the development of the poor and marginalised people were not mentioned in the plans. He claimed various projects worth Tk 800 crore are going on for the development of deprived communities.

The city corporation had built 227 houses and provided Tk 4 crore loans from the Community Housing Development Fund for the poor and destitute, the mayor said.

Although a digital traffic signalling system -- installed in the city in the late 90s -- never came to any use, the city corporation has planned a Tk 895.40 crore project on traffic signalling.

It has also planned a Tk 795.80 crore project for protection and development of natural waterbodies in the city, and a waste management project worth Tk 492.08 crore.

The city corporation plans to spend some Tk 511.09 crore for building an eco-park on Padma river bank, and Tk 511.09 crore for building a science city and safari park.

The mayor said he has lobbied with the government for capital dredging of river Padma, and initiating a process of establishing an international river port in Rajshahi.

Marking the Urs (death anniversary) of Hazrat Shahjalal (R) at his shrine in Sylhet, the "lakri tora" ritual has begun in the city. It is said the Muslim saint used to collect firewood this way, and hundreds of his followers have kept the tradition alive in his memory for over 700 years, collecting tree branches from Lakkatura and Malnichhara near the city.

Ensure capital punishment for Tanjina's killers

Human chains demand in Thakurgaon, Ctg

STAR REPORT

People in two districts yesterday demanded justice for nurse Tanjina Akhter, who died on June 27 around a week after she was stabbed by her stalkers in Thakurgaon.

Tanjina, 24, worked at Grameen Eye Hospital in the district.

Following the incident, the family filed a case with Thakurgaon Police Station, accusing one Arman Hossain Jiban and four to five unnamed persons.

Our Chattogram correspondent reports, students of Chattogram Nursing College and activists of Bangladesh Narimukti Kendra, Chattogram formed a human chain at the city's Prabartak intersection.

Speakers at the event demanded exemplary punishment for all stalkers, rapists and child abusers in the country.

Addressing the event, Romana Akhter, a teacher of the nursing college, said, "Tanjina was killed by stalkers just a month into the killing of nurse Shahinoor Akter

Tania in Mymensingh."

Such incidents are continuously happening in the country, she said, slamming authorities over their "silence".

Asma Akhter, president of Narimukti Kendra, Chattogram, said women are more vulnerable to being victimised everywhere. She emphasised a stop to all sorts of violence against women.

Mamunur Rashid, general secretary of Students Welfare Association of the nursing college, presided over the event.

Our Thakurgaon correspondent adds, Tanjina's parents joined a human chain in the town with the same demand.

The human chain followed a discussion where Tanjina's father Hamid Ali and mother Shahida Begum spoke. They urged law enforcers to discharge duties properly to ensure punishment for the killers.

Earlier in the day, locals brought out a mourning procession in the town under the banner of Thakurgaonbasi.
