New additions in Le Reve's 9-to-9 Collection

Focusing on the young, professional women of Bangladesh, Le Reve has always worked to provide modern work wear options for an effortless day to evening look through their 9-to-9 clothing line. The newest additions are no exception as the fashion house has incorporated contemporary silhouettes with comfortable styles for an extensive collection.

The collection includes tunics, long kameez, western style knit tops, formal trousers, palazzos and matching bottoms. The line-up is mostly made of cotton, rayon and viscose fabrics to ensure comfort throughout the day.

Monnujan Nargis, CEO of Le Reve, mentioned that this time around, the collection has jewel tones like white, cobalt blue, purple, with warm tones like yellow ochre, beige, shades similar to papaya and carrot, along with pastel shades like parchment, terracotta, rose water shade — all of which are currently trending in the international fashion scene. Le Reve has also incorporated symmetric and asymmetric hemlines, varieties of sleeves like bell, ruffle and billowing styles along with normal cuff sleeves.

Nargis also added that the fashion house has concentrated on monochromatic colours and prints to make the collection an ideal office wear to portray a perfect corporate look.

Prices start from Tk 1,290 for tunics, tops and bottoms. Le Reve is also offering up to 25 percent off as an inaugural offer exclusively on the 9-to-9 collection for a limited period. This offer is valid at all Le Reve stores as well as online at www.lerevecraze.com
