

COVER STORY

Simply blanc

It is time to walk down the white bricked road of elegance, for this week is all about jewels, and not just any kind! Channel your inner Marie Antoinette in jewels in the one eternal shade of royalty—white! From the must-have diamonds, pearls, crystals and moonstones, take a break from the colours and keep it tastefully graceful and polished because 2019 is half way done, but style is an ever-evolving continuum.
