Aparna Ghosh

in 'His His Whose Whose' this Eid ul Adha

SHAH ALAM SHAZI
Television actor Aparna Ghosh has returned to Bangladesh after a two-week long trip to England where she watched three of Bangladesh's live matches at the ICC Cricket World Cup 2019. Upon returning, she has begun shooting for an hour-long television drama, titled 'His His Whose Whose', directed by Shubho Raihan. The principal photography for the project, which is slated to release this Eid ul Adha, is ongoing in Cox's Bazar. "The plot of the single episode drama is located on a beachside, and hence we're filming in Cox's Bazar," said Aparna. "It feels wonderful to get back to work with this project right after returning to Bangladesh."

Aparna is scheduled to film for a few more telefilms for Eid ul Adha, after returning to Dhaka. "I am already in talks with a number of directors. Looking forward to doing some good work in the coming future," asserted Aparna.
Apart from telefilms, Aparna also works in movies. Currently, she's working on the film Gondi, directed by Fakhru Arefin Khan.

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT DESK
Cultural organisation Amra Shurjomukhi, arranged a musical soiree featuring eminent Narzul sangeet exponent Dalia Nausheen recently. Titled 'Gaan Kobitar Chhayatoley', it was conducted at Bangladesh National Museum's Kabi Sufia Kamal Auditorium.
Shofiqul Islam Selim, Executive Director, Amra Shurjomukhi, addressed the audience with his welcome speech. Barrister M Amir-ul Islam chaired the programme, while Dr Rafiqul Islam graced the event as the chief guest. Dr Syed Manzoorul Islam and renowned television personality, Sara Zaker attended as the special guests.
The guests who spoke at the event, praised Dalia Nausheen for her determination to pursue her art with such determination even at this age. Ruposree Chakraborty emceed the event with much enthusiasm.
As Dalia Nausheen took to the stage to enthral the eagerly waiting audience, she presented the songs, Ektara Lageyna Amar, Padmar Dhewre, Hoytoba Nahi Pabo, and more. Her melodious voice resonated through the auditorium as she delivered with finesse. Renowned artistes Sadi Mohammad and Nasima Shaheen Fancy along with Samiul Islam Polak also entertained the audience during the programme.

Alpana Habib wins Gourmand World Cookbook Award

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT DESK
Bangladeshi culinary artiste Alpana Habib's first cookbook 'Alpana's Cooking' was bestowed with the "Best First Cookbook" award of 2019 in the 24th Gourmand World Cookbook Awards 2019, held in Macao recently. First introduced in 1995 at Frankfurt Book Fair, Gourmand Awards are known as the Oscars in gastronomy.
Hundreds of publishers, authors, chefs and journalists are taking part in this event being held at Macao International Book Fair organised by the Institute of Culture of Macao. The fair continues till July 7, 2019 at the Venetian Congress Center.
'Alpana's Cooking', published last year, is a compilation of 250 of her most popular recipes. The book is bilingual, making all the recipes accessible to both Bengali and English speakers all over the world. From traditional Bengali dishes like bharta and shukto, to a regal kachchi biriyani or a Thai salad, or an American carrot cake, this cookbook has it all and then some.

Tariq Anam Khan and Sumaiya Shimu pair up as a couple

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT DESK
For the first time in their respective careers, actors Tariq Anam Khan and Sumaiya Shimu will be sharing screen space as a married couple in a tele-fiction. Titled Water, it is written by Rumman Rashid Khan and directed by Shimanto Shajal.
In the tele-fiction, Tariq's character suffers from aquaphobia while his spouse Sumaiya struggles to cope with his unusual characteristics. She soon realises that the way life is synonymous to water, so is death.
According to the actors, the story revolving around Water is rather unique and intriguing, thus is encouraged them to take up the roles. Both Sumaiya and Tariq are optimistic about the tele-fiction and hope that the audience will get to enjoy something different in this tele-fiction. Water is scheduled to air on a private satellite channel during the upcoming Eid ul Adha.
