Hits Four

Following the success of his film Password, Shakib Khan has announced that he will be doing four new films under the banner of his own production house, SK Films. The films he announced were Bir, directed by Kazi Hayat, Password 2 by Malek Afsari, Fighter by Badiul Alam Khokon and Priyotoma by Himel Ashraf. After announcing the films, Shakib Khan said, "I want to regularly produce films of international standard. This industry has made me what I am today, so I don't want to abandon this industry in its dire times." Password has received a lot of praise from the audience, and SK Films has announced that the film will be in theatres till Eid-ul-Azha. About Password's success, Shakib said, "The film had a very unique story, exotic shooting locations and melodious songs. The audiences got something new from this movie. I would say that Password is a very modern film. The fans want to watch films of international standard; Password proved that. This film has set a new benchmark for the producers in our country." So far, Shakib Khan has produced two films, Password and Hero: The Superstar.
