SHOKH-ING RETURN

After almost one and a half years, model and actor Anika Kabir Shokh is set to make a comeback with a drama, directed by Sheikh Selim. Regarding Shokh's return, Sheikh Selim said, "After a long break, Shokh has returned to the industry, and this is great news for all of us. Our industry needs actors of her calibre, and I am hoping that we will be able to present the audience with good projects." Shokh, who was once a common household name, married Niloy back in January 2015. After their separation in mid-2017, Shokh stepped away from the limelight, and took a long gap from acting.

Shuvoo's foreign mission

Dhaka Attack actor, Arifin Shuvoo has travelled to Los Angeles, USA on the 24th of this month to take part in a film workshop. He will also be performing in a programme organised as a part of the workshop. Afterwards, he will reportedly return to Bangladesh on the 28th of next month. The actor said, "There is no alternative to learning. All the renowned actors in our industry have learned the art of acting, and I plan to do the same until the day I die. I want to develop my acting skills; that's why I'm participating in this workshop." Mission Extreme is expected to be his next release; Jannatul Ferdous Oishee will be starring alongside him in the film. He also signed up for another film, Jam, where Purnima will star alongside him.

Dhaliwood's Princess MOUSHUMI

Moushumi Hamid will be next seen in Raju Alim's debut telefilm, Valobashar Rajkonna. The film, which is set to be released this Eid, will also star Shipon Mitra, Abid Rehan, Farzana Chumki, Kazi Raju and Mili Bashar, among others. The shooting for the film took place in scenic locations all over Nepal. An added bonus to the film will be a song, sung by Rezwana Choudhury Bannya and Ferdous Ara. Regarding the film, the director said, "It has a new and unique plotline, and I hope the audience will enjoy the element of suspense in it. The film will be released on Eid-ul-Azha, and I believe it will be a success."
