

Eid celebrations with Anjan's

For a festive and lively Eid-ul-Azha celebration, Anjan's is prepared once again this year with a collection befitting the occasion. This Eid, the collection is a mix of tradition and modern trends. Jamdani, kantha, paisley patterns, and other geometric and floral motifs etc. have been used extensively.

For women, the collection includes sari, shalwar kameez, dupatta and a variety of tops. For men, this collection has panjabi-pajama, shirts, t-shirts and sherwanis. As for the children and youngsters, Anjan's has sari, shalwar kameez, frocks, panjabis, shirts and fatuas. Other than clothes, there are various ornaments, home textiles and various gift items.

The youthful collection has included various cottons, linen cotton, georgette, silk, and endi cotton with various designs and weaves.

All branches of Anjan's are ready with this collection. Aside from the store, shoppers can get the collection and other trendy items from www.anjans.com

Astha an ethical superstore

Astha, as the name suggests, is a symbol of trust, a signage of dependance, a bastion of quality - it is a new entrant in the superstore sector of Bangladesh. They are bringing the first-ever ethical superstore of Bangladesh where individuals and families can avail the numerous products that they need, all under one roof. Their ethical perspective strives to offer customers the freshest produce that this beautiful country has to offer.

The superstore industry in Bangladesh currently demands a change towards providing only the purest food items, which is the fundamental right of every customer. Every customer deserves the best possible food. And at Astha, that is exactly what is being done by offering the best quality.

The highly trained personnel at Astha work with discipline and firm resolution in providing a superstore experience that will not be found anywhere else in Bangladesh. Their culture is built around providing their customers with quality goods and services. The relationship that is shared with the various stakeholders is centred on trust. The suppliers, retailers and clients all help to create the ultimate shopping experience.

Astha believes in providing exemplary superstore shopping experience, which is drawn from their ethos as reflected in the shared dream of its founder: Lt. Gen. Abul Hossain, a retired military officer of Bangladesh Army, who along with his team of military officials, civil bureaucrats and renowned businessmen, have come together to build an ethical superstore, Astha Shopping Village.

Address: SKS Tower (ground floor), 7 VIP Road, Mohakhali, DNCC, Dhaka-1206.
