

Risky bamboo bridge their only means

Children cross this bamboo bridge over a portion of the Kaptai Lake at Bilaichhari Para under Rangamati municipality for attending school. Locals use the makeshift structure amid risk as their cry for building a concrete bridge has failed to bring any result.

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Rangamati

People of Bilaichhari Para and Jhogra villages under Rangamati municipality are suffering for want of a permanent bridge over a portion of the Kaptai Lake at Bilaichhari Para.

As a makeshift arrangement, villagers make a bamboo bridge at the spot every year as the area remains under water for around six months.

During a recent visit to the area, this correspondent saw people using the 100-foot-long bamboo bridge to go to destinations including educational institutions and markets.

"We face trouble as we have to cross the bridge for movement, especially during the rainy season. We urged the municipality authorities on several occasions to set up a bridge but we are yet to get any response," said Jyoti Chakma, a local resident.

"Last year a few of my classmates were injured after falling down from the bamboo bridge," said Sejuti Chakma, a fifth grader of Bilaichhari Para Government Primary School.

Dipu Shring Lepsa, headmaster (in charge) of the school, said, "Every year, locals build a bamboo bridge with their own cost. Children have to cross the bamboo structure amid risk for coming to school during the rainy season."

Basuki Chakma, a local karbari (village headman), said during election campaigns candidates assure us of building a concrete bridge at the spot but public representatives forget the promise afterwards.

Contacted, Akbor Hossain Chowdhury, mayor of Rangamati municipality, said he will take steps regarding the matter soon.

Elderly man killed over Tk 1,000!

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

Neighbours allegedly beat an elderly man dead and injured his wife in Birampur upazila after the couple went to their neighbour's house on Monday and asked them to repay Tk 1,000.

Sultan Ali, 55, a farmer from Dudhiagachhi village, died around 1:00am on Tuesday at M Abdur Rahim Medical College Hospital (MARMCH) in Dinajpur. His wife Saleha Begum is still undergoing treatment at Birampur Upazila Health Complex.

Police said they detained two individuals in this connection. They however did not disclose their names.

A week ago, Sultan's neighbour Belal Hossain borrowed Tk 1,000 from Saleha and committed to pay back the money this Monday, police said quoting locals.

On Monday evening, when Saleha and Sultan went to Belal's house for the money, Belal and his family members engaged in an altercation with them. At one stage, Belal, his brother Shakil, sister Bithi and their mother Beauty Begum beat the neighbours with bamboo sticks and rendered them unconscious.

Locals rescued the couple and took them to the upazila health complex. Critically injured Sultan was transferred to MARMCH where he succumbed to his injuries.

Process was underway to file a case in this connection, said Moniruzzaman, officer-in-charge of Birampur Police Station.
