

AYUB BACHCHU'S birthday tribute

Legendary musician, Ayub Bachchu had his first birthday on August 16, since his death. On that day, the production company, Soundtek released a previously recorded track, Vabsutro. The song, which was written by Marzuk Russell, and composed by Bachchu himself, was recorded back in 2005, for an album, but was never released. The owner of Soundtek, Sultan Mahmud Babul said, "The song was made a long time ago. I was recently reminded of it. After much difficulty, I was able to retrieve the original version of the song. We also released a lyrical video for it.

ROSHAN'S SEASON

Beporowa, directed by Raja Chanda was recently released, during Eid-ul-Adha, in fifty three cinema halls all over Bangladesh. The film, starring Roshan and Bobby, has gained significant popularity. That's the conclusion that can be drawn from the huge footfall of audience at cinema halls. Roshan has been praised for his acting skills in the movie by the audience. Regarding the film, Roshan said, "I am overwhelmed with the amount of love I have received from my fans. I cannot put into words the joy I felt upon hearing their reviews. It is a big achievement for me."

Secret Agent MAMO

Shooting for Zakia Bari Mamo's first Hindi film, Max Ki Gun, directed by Sameer Khan, started on the 16th of this month, in various sites of Bhutan. In the film, Mamo will be seen portraying the role of a CBI officer. Regarding the film, Mamo said, "This is my first Hindi movie. I'm very excited as the shooting has finally started after a long wait. I'm hoping this project will turn out well." The film will also feature Tamil-Telugu actor, Kavita Radheshyam and Nishat Pandey, among others.

