

BOLLYWOOD CATFIGHT CONTINUES

Actor Kangana Ranaut once made comments about how women in the film industry should support each other. Now, actor Taapsee Pannu has called out on Kangana's hypocrisy, saying how Kangana has never done anything to support her film, Mission Mangal, which stars five female actors, Vidya Balan, Kriti Kulhari, Nithya Menon, Sonakshi Sinha and Taapsee Pannu herself. Taapsee also talked about how Kangana and her sister, Rangoli Chandel had branded her as a “sasti copy” of Kangana. Taapsee said in an interview, “It was a shock because it came from someone I always admired. I felt disappointed. When someone you had put on a pedestal does this, it makes you question if you were right in looking up to her,” she also added, “Just because she is saying it, doesn't mean it's the ultimate truth. She didn't expose me; she exposed herself.”

Source: Internet

Death in the Family?

After the trailer for BBC's hit drama series, Peaky Blinders had been released, fans have been going crazy, speculating what might happen in the upcoming season. With major characters, like John Shelby, played by Joe Cole, and Grace Burgess, played by Annabelle Wallis dying in the previous seasons, fans expect another major character death this season. Many suspect Tommy Shelby's son, Charles Shelby being killed off as there have been some hints in the trailer. In one scene, Tommy, who is played by Cillian Murphy is seen cradling an apparently dead body, after an explosion. In another, he's seen with his daughter, Ruby looking at a grave. This has left many wondering as to where Charles is. The much anticipated fifth season will be released on August 25, 2019.

Source: Internet

AQUAMAN ARRESTED!

While protesting the construction of the Thirty Meter Telescope on top of Hawaii's Mauna Kea volcano, Aquaman actor, Jason Momoa was photographed being taken into custody by the police. However, the photo was staged, as can be seen by the playful look on the actor's face and the smiles on the faces of the policemen. The Mauna Kea volcano is a sacred place for Hawaii, and the photo was made to raise awareness for its protection. His Justice League co-star, Ezra Miller also joined Momoa (a Hawaiian native) in the protests.

Source: Internet

