

Rab arrested three employees of "Australian Gaoa Ghee" in Narayanganj's Arahazar yesterday, for manufacturing and marketing adulterated ghee. Later, a mobile court of Rab, led by Executive Magistrate Ujjal Hossain, jailed Sabuj, 29, for two years Atiqul Islam, 24, for six months and Rakib, 19, for one month. The battalion said it also sealed off the factory that used to mix various expired chemicals with ghee, causing harm to human health.

BCL leader arrested for assaulting journo, another in Ashulia

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Savar

Police yesterday arrested a Bangladesh Chhatra League leader on the charge of assaulting a journalist and a Muktiyoddha Projonmo League leader in Ashulia of Savar.

The arrestee-- Shamiul Alam Shamim -- is president of Ashulia unit of the pro-Awami League student organisation, BCL sources said.

Shamim along with his supporters beat up Abdullah Al Wahid, Savar correspondent of My TV, when he went to Kurgaon to cover a report on land grabbing, said the journalist.

There has been a dispute over the land between Shamim and a relative of Obaidul Islam, president of Dhaka district unit of Muktiyoddha Projonmo League, said Obaidul.

The attackers also assaulted Obaidul as he was helping the reporter, he added.

A written complaint was filed with Ashulia police Station in connection with the attack, said Sub-inspector Nahid Hassan.

Woman murdered in Manikganj

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Manikganj

A woman has been found murdered in her house at Chandahar in Singair upazila of Manikganj.

Firoza Begum, 45, wife of expatriate Piar Ali, was a mother of three children. Her body bore injuries to the throat and head, said police.

Police and locals said Firoza was living alone. Yesterday morning, a neighbour discovered her body and locals informed police.

OC Khandaker Imam Hossain of Singair Police Station suspects some miscreants killed Firoza after breaking into her house at night.

owners who are ignoring the interests of journalists while introducing policies.

Mizanul Alam, additional secretary to information ministry, said they will inform the authorities concerned of journalists' demands so proper initiatives can be taken.

With DUJ former general secretary Kuddus Afrad in the chair, Dhaka Reporters' Unity President Elias Hossain, journalist Ajoy Dasgupta and BFUI executive member Khairuzzaman Kamal, among others, spoke at the discussion.

harassing her.

Speaking to The Daily Star, Bijon Kumar Brahma, additional registrar of PUST (who issued the admit card), claimed that Sabina did not fulfil all the requirements for the recruitment.

Chairman (In Charge) of Urban and Regional Planning department of PUST, Md Sohel Rana, said the post required minimum GPA 4 in SSC and HSC but the applicant scored GPA 3.8 in HSC and so she was rejected for the recruitment test.

When asked why the admit card was issued, he said it might be a mistake.

The candidate might be selected earlier, so my sister was not allowed to sit for the exam, said Rezaul Haque, brother of the applicant.

"My sister fulfilled all the requirements set by the government, so she applied," Rezaul, also a staff of the university, said.

Despite repeated attempts, Vice Chancellor of PUST Dr Rustom Ali could not be reached for comment. His phone was switched off yesterday. Pro-VC Dr Anwarul Islam did not receive calls either.

Jamalpur DC Ahmed Kabir suspended

UNB, Dhaka

Jamalpur's Deputy Commissioner Ahmed Kabir has been suspended as a leaked video showing him in a compromising situation with a female colleague went viral on social media.

Additional Secretary (Discipline and Investigation) of the public administration ministry Maniruddin said the action was taken against the DC on September 25.

On August 25, Ahmed Kabir was made an officer on special duty (OSD) and attached to the ministry.

The video of Jamalpur DC and his female colleague was uploaded from the Facebook account of one Khandakar Shohel on August 22 night but was removed the following day. In the meantime, it went viral.

everything," Maj Safin said.

They hardly have any time for leisure. But whenever they have some down-time, they have to stay inside the camps because of security concerns. Mobile connectivity is almost zero outside the cities; so, talking to their loved ones is not an option either. Add to that the unforgiving weather and dearth of options for recreation in Mali could be very depressing. That's why, many peacekeepers suffer from anxiety and stress-related disorders.

"Stress is a major health concern in Malian camps. We try to boost our mood up by arranging indoor and outdoor games," said Lt Col Amirul Hasan, senior medical officer, Gao Super Camp Level-1 Hospital.

"During the Oryx-2 operation a few months ago, I was disconnected from my family for many days. Back home in Bangladesh, they thought something terrible had happened to me. Their Eid was ruined."

Everything a parent would not want their child to be around can be found in Mali in abundance -- scarcity of water, security threat, no connectivity, extreme weather and so on.

"We forget all our hardship every time we succeed in bringing peace to a conflict-prone area. The hospitality of the locals encourage us and gives meaning to our work," he added.

The DC, in a letter, cited four reasons -- the rally will hamper the school's academic activities; may damage the field; untoward incidents may take place due to such a huge gathering and the school's infrastructures may get damaged.

"There's no possibility of permitting them," the DC told this correspondent. He said the school authorities do not want any political gathering at their field.

Contacted, RMP spokesperson Additional Deputy Commissioner Golam Ruhul Kuddus said, "If BNP is not permitted to hold the rally on the field, we cannot give them security clearance."

Police will not allow any "illegal gathering", he added. About the arrests, he said they arrested some 20 activists as they had warrants out against them.

Yesterday, BNP leaders Bulbul, Mizanur Rahman Minu and Shafiqul Haque Milon were seen visiting different areas and distributing leaflets among people in support of the rally.

After organising rallies in other divisions, BNP planned to hold the Rajshahi rally on July 29. The party changed the date to September 29 as the local administration did not allow it, citing the overall flood situation in the division.

Dharampur area.

Police arrested Shyamol after the 20-year-old filed a case against him, saying that Shyamol forced himself on her after the provost had to leave the house around 1:30am, answering a call from the dormitory.

To save herself, the girl started shouting and Shyamol ran away from the room. Finding no way to get out of the house, she called her father in Gopalganj. Later police and RU proctor conducted a raid at Bithika's house and rescued her.

Shacheton Nagorik Committee formed a human chain on Sadar Road in Barishal city yesterday, in observance of Global Climate Strike Week (September 20-27) as a series of international strikes and protests to demand action be taken to address climate change. The protests are taking place across 4,500 locations in 150 countries. The week is a part of school strike for climate movement, inspired by Swedish climate activist Greta Thunberg. People are stepping up to support young climate activists and demanding an end to the age of fossil fuels.
